EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

New Pacific School - Yuba City

The New Pacific School is a charter public school operated by the Pacific Charter Institute (PCI). The New Pacific School leverages PCI's experience serving homeschool families and independent study students with project-based learning and dual-enrollment to offer a highly-individualized, student-centered approach to a site-based program TK-12 school.

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC"), the mental health crisis of today's learners is real and growing. Surveys in 2019 identified one in six U.S. children aged two through eight years (17.4 percent) had a diagnosed mental, behavioral, or developmental disorder. More than one in three high school students had experienced persistent feelings of sadness or hopelessness in 2019, a 40 percent increase since 2009. Approximately one in six youth reported making a suicide plan in 2019, a 44 percent increase since 2009. The CDC recorded these alarming statistics before the pandemic.

Adverse Childhood Experiences ("ACE") - are traumatic childhood events caused by abuse, neglect, or other often persistent household stressors, like witnessing domestic violence or alcoholism. Each ACE experience in childhood increases a child's risk of health and social issues such as:

- Decreased cognitive ability
- Depression and suicide
- Poor academic achievement
- Poor work performance
- Illicit drug use
- Adolescent pregnancy
- Alcoholism
- 2 out of 3 children have experienced at least 1 ACE
- 1 in 5 children have experienced 3 or more ACEs

According to 2017-2018 estimates, 23% of California youth ages 12-17 needed help for emotional or mental health problems (such as feeling sad, anxious, or nervous) in the previous year, up from 13% in 2009. Among those who needed help, fewer than half (45%) received counseling. In 2017-2019, an estimated 32.3% of California students in grades 9, 11, with low levels of school connectedness seriously considered attempting suicide in the previous year. (kidsdata.org)

The New Pacific School is founded on the belief that cultivating a deep culture of connectedness between students, families, and teachers is the solution to this growing problem. According to 2015-2017 estimates, 43% of California students in grades 7, 9, 11, and non-traditional programs with high levels of school connectedness did not miss any school in the previous month, compared with 27% of students with low levels of connectedness. (kidsdata.org)

Pacific Charter Institute has a long history of meeting the needs of learners who need an individualized approach to learning. The learning environment at New Pacific School continues this tradition as we welcome students who have struggled with bullying, connectedness, depression, chronic absenteeism, suspensions, or low-academic performance. Further, New Pacific School offers students the same PCI offering of accelerated learning, project-based learning, and learning in the community that the schools students attended prior did not offer. The staff members will take great care to learn about the learner and tailor the experience to the student.

New Pacific School will appeal to TK-12 students and families who desire a nurturing, community-based, balanced, and personalized learning environment focused on the whole child. We strive to effectively support the needs of a wide range of learning styles, interests, and abilities. New Pacific School will be a dynamic, welcoming, and committed community where knowledge, innovation, and individual creativity are honored and celebrated. The school fits the student rather than forcing the student to fit the school.

New Pacific School the whole-child learning experience integrates academics and social emotional learning across all grades in a small, inclusive environment.

Key Elements of New Pacific School

- Project-based Learning
- Individualized Learning Plans
- Social Emotional Learning
- College and Career Readiness
- Professional Development for Teachers

New Pacific School Integrates two trauma-informed SEL frameworks as the foundation for student capacity development. The first framework empowers students to set bold goals and grow into a resilient, self-determined leader through Dr. Steven Covey's Leader in Me approach. Dr. Covey's CASEL-endorsed curriculum is used in schools worldwide. The second framework unifies developmental psychology and cognitive neuroscience to foster culturally aware restorative practices through the Right Brain Institute—also known as the Los Angeles Institute of Restorative Practices. Together, these form our Multi-Tiered System of Supports ("MTSS"). An MTSS is a continuous-improvement framework for supporting all students.

By empowering students with self-determination, resilience, and self-regulation they can seamlessly launch into an inquiry/project-based curriculum that is both student-paced and teacher facilitated. Students will receive further support to access deeper learning experiences including dual enrollment, competitions, and showcases to prepare NPS students for college, career, and community work.

INTRODUCTION

In 2004, experienced educators in northern California formed PCI as a non-profit public benefit corporation with 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status. It grew into four schools: Heritage Peak Charter School, Rio Valley Charter School, Sutter Peak Charter Academy, and Valley View Charter Prep. Now, the PCI team is excited to offer a new and distinct program to meet the needs of students and families today.

Pacific Charter Institute supports the fluidity and adaptability of academic programs focused on college preparatory academic achievement to meet the individual needs of each student. The traditional educational system meets the needs of the majority of students. The students whose needs are not met and remain in the public school system typically enroll in district schools that offer limited or no college preparatory programs unless a school of choice is available. During this period of turmoil for the student, many drop out of school altogether.

PCI offers students who choose a different path the opportunity to maintain access to four-year college, while engaging in school in the manner that is effective for them. The school actively mentors new students, taking them from where they are to where they become competitive with their peers and become educated 21st century individuals.

A. PCI Organizational and Managerial Expertise

PCI has had the consistency of the same Executive Director since the inception of the organization in 2004. In addition to the Executive Director's leadership, the board has one board member that has been a director since 2005 along with board members representing the community colleges, real estate, STEM (engineering), finance, and nonprofit leadership. Beyond an exemplary Board of Directors, PCI also has an exceptional leadership team with over 80 years of combined experience with PCI.

PCI is an organization that provides fiscal and administrative expertise. The charter schools it operates, Heritage Peak Charter School, Rio Valley Charter School, Sutter Peak Charter Academy, and Valley View Charter Prep,, have experienced successful fiscal growth through prudent budgeting and planning. PCI employs the highest quality business staff, including former county and district executive level staff. In addition, the PCI Board has extensive knowledge of budgeting and fiscal operations at the charter school, district, state, and federal levels (Table 2).

B. Legal Expertise

PCI utilizes the legal expertise of Young, Minney, & Corr LLP and Lozano Smith (Table).

C. Charter School Policy and Operations Support

New Pacific School benefits from the expertise provided by its Board of Directors, as well as from the statewide organizations representing charter schools including the California Charter Schools Association (“CCSA”), Charter Schools Development Center (“CSDC”), and APLUS. PCI belongs to these organizations and utilizes each for varying resources in order to successfully operate charter schools. By working with all of these organizations PCI leadership and the Board of Directors can forecast and develop strategies to ensure successful organizational outcomes (Table 2).

D. PCI Strategic Planning Process

PCI developed a comprehensive strategic plan that outlines four key focuses including learning, operations, sustainability, and the community. The elements of the strategic plan support a clear macro-direction for all stakeholders. Within the strategic plan organizational measurable goals are created called strategic agility goals that complement the strategic plan (Table 3). Additionally, New Pacific School’s mission, vision, equity vision and goal provide clear foundational expectations for a successful student-centered program. An analogy to the PCI strategic planning process and its components in a traditional school district would be (1) district strategic plan, (2) district focused measurable goals, and (3) local school handbook, culture, and expectations.

E. Academic Strategic Agility

New Pacific School will unify the organizational strategic plan, the strategic agility goals, and its own mission, vision, and equity vision. The strategic agility goals focus on specific actions that will reach the goals that are targeted by PCI outlined below (MIT Sloan School of Management). Strategic Agility stems from the MIT Sloan School of Management research that suggests Specific Action Goals will yield the expected or superior outcomes over three to five years. More specifically, the allocation of resources, coupled with focused actions, will allow all PCI schools to achieve school and CDE dashboard targets performance goals. The current strategic agility goals at PCI:

- K-2 Literacy
- Intensive intervention for students at 50% proficiency or below on the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (“CAASPP”) and internal assessments
- 100% 9th – 12th grade students in A-G classes and college and career readiness

Ensure compliance with all local, state, and federal regulations, ensuring educational success for students within the models developed by Pacific Charter Institute. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish clear expectations and goals for all incoming students and share this information with all interested local agencies and groups. Establish and maintain positive relationships with local groups including media, community groups, and business organizations. Establish and disseminate clear goals and achievements through multiple communication tools. Maintain positive relationships with the local educational groups including the sponsoring school districts.

F. A Strong Foundation for Approval of New Pacific School

As summarized above, the PCI Board of Directors, the administration, and experts from within the organization clearly have the capacity to ensure an excellent academic and fiscal record for New Pacific School - Yuba City. PCI has a strong record of leadership, stability, and fiscal responsibility. The Team has the proven administrative capacity to continue to manage and safeguard public funds in the same high-quality manner it has done since 2005. PCI has a record of outstanding academic success, serving distinctly different student populations including college and career preparatory homeschool, college preparatory hybrid site-based programs, at-promise student populations (including gang affiliated youth and teen parents), Emerging Bilingual Learners, and socioeconomically disadvantaged students. This is evident in the fact that all PCI charter schools earned Western Association of Schools and Colleges (“WASC”) accreditations when reviewed. In addition, PCI has established an excellent track record with independent financial audits, while also maintaining healthy reserves and a clear focus on academic achievement. The PCI Board of Directors, the executive team, the faculty, and the external professional groups have the skill and experience in education, management, finance, and law needed for the successful launch of New Pacific School.

G. A History of Academic Success

For more than fifteen years, Pacific Charter Institute charter schools continue to close the achievement gap for students who did not fit into the traditional school system, utilizing one-on-one and small group instruction format. The schools successfully provide highly trained teachers who build personal, professional relationships with the parents/guardians and the students. This relationship is coupled with 21st Century delivery of curriculum and assessment using online classes taught by our own teachers across TK – 12th grade students. All four of our schools met the criteria for renewal under AB 1505 as “middle-performing” schools, as of 2019.

Further, we focus on achieving better than one year of growth in math and language arts for all our students. Our goals of early literacy benchmarking, dynamic intervention with Exact Path and targeted tutoring, project-based curriculum, and our focus on writing will be continued in the classroom setting focusing on the individual students every day.

We realize all students require social emotional support and it is this focus at Pacific Charter Institute that will be implemented at New Pacific School. The Leader in Me focus (Franklin Covey), and the restorative practices with the Right Brain Institute (Los Angeles Institute of Restorative Practices) will be in addition to our regular surveys, our crisis hotline, and PCI’s seven counselors and three psychologists..

The following academic data demonstrates the acute attention that PCI expects and monitors of every student. The data includes progress for early literacy (DIBELS), intervention and acceleration of students (EXACT PATH), and college/career readiness (A-G, dual enrollment, Career classes). The combined data reflects the success of the students across four PCI schools; Heritage Peak Charter School, Rio Valley Charter School, Sutter Peak Charter Academy, and Valley View Charter Prep.

H. Early Literacy Data

DIBELS 20/21 Mid-year results

DIBELS is our grades K-2 reading fluency assessment tool that breaks the components of fluency into discrete skill sets for accurate and timely intervention. PCI increased literacy in multiple areas. PCI K-2 students made considerable gains in all domains of early literacy in the course of a year; including phonemic awareness, decoding, and oral reading fluency. All instructional staff engaged in intensive training in DIBELS assessments and interventions. Teachers and families developed a literacy plan for students to complete regularly at home. With such gains, the organization expects to see even more growth in literacy with continued support and fidelity.

I. Year on Year Intervention Improvement

Exact Path Year on Year Improvement

We use Exact Path intervention to support students in closing the achievement gap. Even though the pandemic affected the ability for teachers to be face to face with students the relationship and expectations did not diminish. Although PCI was not able to grow in enrollment due to limitations placed on charter schools, the students increased their passage rates across all of the subject areas listed below. Further, the number of activities increased dramatically in ELA as well as mathematics.

Exact Path Passing Rate by PCI Students

	2019-2020	2020-2021	Difference
ELA	43.3%	58.75%	15.45%

J. Single Year Academic Improvement

Exact Path Annual Progress 2020-2021

We used the Exact Path Diagnostic assessment for our students during the pandemic year. The efforts that demonstrated year on year for our success using the Exact Path intervention outlined in Table 5 is amplified by the bi-annual assessment that our students complete each year. Those students that completed the third assessment in the spring did so to verify academic strategies at the request of the teacher, student, or parent. Students made incredible gains using the nationally normed assessment. This data not only illustrates the growth of the students, but also the culture of improvement with the sheer number of students assessed throughout the year.

K. College / Career Readiness

A-G Completion

We maintain a close watch on our students and the California College and Career Dashboard. Our counselors ensure that our students are satisfying the components outlined in the dashboard to ensure our students' success. The attention to A-G completion by our students is complemented by our attention to dual or concurrent enrollment and career aspirations. In 2021-2022 we will have four years completed for this initiative with the expectation of continued growth in students completing A-G courses.

Career Classes and Certifications

We know that during the pandemic students would have difficulty accessing on site career opportunities so emphasis and support from teachers and counselors was placed on iCEV courses online. We maintain a close watch on our students and the California College and Career Dashboard. These classes complement PCI on site classes in EKG Technology and Medical Assisting.

Summary

The academic elements outlined above reflect strategic agility that PCI adopted to ensure students increased their learning prior to the pandemic. The teachers successfully maintained the rigor and cadence demonstrating increased learning for the students across all of the academic bands. These strategies demonstrating increased academic success replicates easily in the site-based setting.

Element A: EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY AND PROGRAM

“The educational program of the charter school, designed, among other things, to identify those whom the charter school is attempting to educate, what it means to be an “educated person” in the 21st century, and how learning best occurs. The goals identified in that program shall include the objective of enabling pupils to become self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners.”

“The annual goals for the charter school for all pupils and for each subgroup of pupils identified pursuant to Section 52052, to be achieved in the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, and specific annual actions to achieve those goals. A charter petition may identify additional school priorities, the goals for the school priorities, and the specific annual actions to achieve those goals.”

“If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the “A” to “G” admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.”

Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(A)(i)-(iii)

A. New Pacific School Overview

New Pacific School is a K-12 learning community where students are empowered to be self-directed scholars, connected to themselves and others as a whole-child and encouraged to embark on a rigorous, personalized learning plan. It is the school’s belief that this best occurs when all levels of the community—students, parents, teachers, staff—collaborate to support whole-child success. This means that the cognitive, emotional, social, and academic growth of our students is the very core of our work. New Pacific School’s goals, actions and measurable outcomes, both schoolwide and for each subgroup of pupils, which address and align with the State Priorities.

Our trauma-informed Social Emotional Learning frameworks unify our commitment to developing self-determined, caring, inclusive, resilient, and balanced learners. Dr. Steven Covey’s Leader in Me curriculum combines accessible, bold goal setting with habits that enhance the executive functioning of all students. The Right Brain Institute innovatively melds the latest psychology and neuroscience to enact culturally sensitive and equitable restorative environments at all levels of the school. These frameworks work hand-in-hand to address Adverse Childhood Experiences to develop an MTSS. This integrated level of support engages students to become drivers of their learning experience

Our student-centered academic approach makes space for student inquiry, purpose, passion, resourcefulness, and global awareness. In addition to the mastery of academic skills, students create inquiry-based projects that cross curricular boundaries. These projects are developmentally and academically appropriate to each child’s personalized learning growth plan and aligned to all California state standards. Families will join New Pacific School because they want a learning community that meets the demands of the 21st century. The industrial school model of the past no longer meets the needs of this rapidly changing world. Our students will stand at the intersection of curiosity, independence, leadership and resilience years after graduation.

Small School Environment

Our educational program will be designed with the knowledge that children need to feel safe and connected in order to reach their full academic potential. In our classrooms, students will have many opportunities to solve complex problems, to collaborate, and to engage in authentic, cross-curricular learning. Students will also be co-creators of classroom norms and expectations, and ultimately become informed participants in the democracy of our school (Leader in Me Focus: Relationship building, teamwork, valuing diversity, and ACES Empowerment, voice, and choice). All of this will occur in a small school, multi-grade environment.¹

Another exciting component of our program will be the design of multi-grade classrooms. While having multi-age classrooms is not a new pedagogical strategy at New Pacific School it will be an intentional practice. Learning environments will not be confined by grade, as all students are in different places academically. What will distinguish students is their specific Learning Growth Plan ("LPG") at the beginning of the school year and multiple sources of student data that may include work samples, early literacy data, and/ or MAP RIT scores. This way, students can be grouped by skills and re-grouped for Project Based Learning. Each learning environment will have at least one certificated teacher and one paraprofessional. Student to staff ratios will be low. Additionally, the classroom will be designed with an open flexible concept.

Mission, Vision, and Goal

As a charter school, we will be committed to being leaders in whole child education, inquiry driven learning, and family partnerships through high-quality educational programs, school resources, and highly qualified school personnel.

Mission Statement

The New Pacific School learning community fosters a sense of connection and belonging to empower scholar-leaders of tomorrow.

Our Goal

New Pacific School is committed to providing a high quality, effective, trauma-informed, and standards-based program where the individual student is challenged, engaged, supported, and safe.

Vision

Graduates of New Pacific School will be lifelong, purpose-driven learners who author their own futures and thrive in a rapidly changing world.

¹ Levine, Thomas H. "What research tells us about the impact and challenges of smaller learning communities." Peabody Journal of Education 85.3 (2010): 276-289

Equity Vision

New Pacific School is an inclusive, welcoming, and safe community that honors each person's uniqueness and embraces differences. We seek to eliminate educational inequalities by offering resources and support to all members of our learning community.

B. New Pacific School Expectations

Connected & Sense of Community

All staff members will be trained in trauma-informed restorative practices, neurobiology and the impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences. This includes staff-student mentorship, schoolwide mindfulness training, and self-regulation strategies. Staff capacity building in Dr. Covey's Leader in Me framework continues to support a culture of safety, empowerment, student voice and choice.

Authentic, Civic Minded & Globally Aware

Through a blend of facilitative and direct instruction, students will navigate through our self-directed curriculum to demonstrate mastery of skills and extend the learning in collaborative, cross-curricular projects that are relevant to their community, grounded in civic-action and—as appropriate—globally informed. Moreover, the school will develop partnerships and field trips to foster experiential learning. These experiences serve as an anchor for authentic projects and college/career exploration.

Rigorous & Engaged

Students, parents and teachers will collaborate closely to design a Learning Growth Plan of short and long-term goals. These are informed by formative and summative assessments and a continuous cycle of inquiry and reflection. Students will have a voice in their learning and lead Team Conferences, which is a practice previously known as parent-teacher conferences.

C. Targeted Community

Yuba City is a city in Northern California and the county seat of Sutter County, California, United States. The population was 66, 972 in 2019 according the Yuba City Economic Development Department. Yuba City is the principal city of the Yuba City Metropolitan Statistical Area which encompasses all of Sutter County and Yuba County. The metro area's population is approximately 168,000. It is the 21st largest metropolitan area in California ranked behind Redding and Chico.

Yuba City is located between the Feather River and the Sutter Buttes and offers a quality, family-oriented lifestyle and a service center for surrounding rural areas. In 2019, the leading industries were retail, health care and social services, accommodation and food services, and public administration. The median household income for the Yuba City metro area was $61,307 in 2019, the latest figures available. Yuba City median household income is $19,133 lower than the median California household income and $4,405 less than the US median household income. Yuba city residents experience poverty at 13% which is higher than the state average of 11.8%. (city-data.com).

Yuba City, CA has a large population of military personnel who served in Gulf War (2001-), 1.1 times greater than any other conflict. The 5 largest ethnic groups in Yuba City, CA are White (Non-Hispanic)

(42.5%), White (Hispanic) (21.8%), Asian (Non-Hispanic) (19.3%), Two+ (Non-Hispanic) (5.06%), and Other (Hispanic) (4.73%). Outside of India, Yuba City is home to one of the largest groups of farmers from Punjab. There is an estimated 15,000 Punjabi-Americans living in Yuba City. In 2019, the median property value in Yuba City, CA was $277,400, and the homeownership rate was 53.5%.

The median age of Yuba City is 34, and there are over 19,000 youth ages 0-19. Yuba City Unified School District provides educational services to nearly 13,000 students K-12. The seventeen schools offer K-5, K-8, 6-8, and 9-12 configurations along with an alternative high school and independent study programs. The school district authorizes two charter schools: Twin Rivers Charter School, which serves grades K-8 and Yuba City Charter, serving grades K-12.

New Pacific School – Yuba City is seeking to offer a TK-12 public school option to students and families in Yuba City. The facility will be located within the boundaries of Yuba City. At the time of the submission of the charter, in consultation with families from the targeted area, PCI has identified a potential facility near the city center, near the junction of Highway 99 and Highway 20. Parents indicated that this would be a desirable location because it offers easy access for families living in both the north and south end of town. Most people in Yuba City drive alone to work, and the average commute time was 26.3 minutes. The average car ownership in Yuba City is 2 cars per household. Some public transportation is available via Yuba-Sutter Transit, but routes are limited. Secondary students may use the routes to/from Yuba Community College while participating early college.

New Pacific School has conducted digital and in-person outreach to families and community leaders in Yuba City to identify a clear local need for the school. For the past 7 years, Pacific Charter Institute has been serving families in Yuba City, Live Oak, Marysville and surrounding areas through Sutter Peak Charter Academy (SPCA), a TK-12 WASC accredited homeschool and independent study program. There are currently 31 students who live in Yuba City enrolled in SPCA. The school's director, Heather Marshall, participates in weekly cross-collaboration as well as recently being a judge for the Rotary's speech contest. SPCA participates in a Tri-county MOU ROP program. Many middle and high school students have taken part in the Veterans of Foreign Affairs writing competitions. The school organizes regular community-building activities, like the End of the Year Celebration at Gauche Aquatic Park in Yuba City on May 17.

Expanding beyond existing PCI families, New Pacific School joined the Yuba City Chamber of Commerce to learn more about the need for additional public school choices, advice on how to best engage the community in outreach efforts, and receive feedback on where to locate the school.

Parents and guardians in Yuba City are invited to attend on-going Coffee with the Principal events. These events are advertised to local families and students through targeted digital social media posts and flyers distributed to local businesses and community based organizations, including Bridges to Housing, Creative Kids Preschool, Playzeum, PALS Playgroup, Harmony Health Medical Clinic and Family Resource Center, and more. Lead Petitioner, Paul Keefer, lead a team to collect signatures at the Sutter Buttes and Peach Bowl Little League games. Families were overwhelmingly enthusiastic about another public school option in Yuba City.

As a result, New Pacific School – Yuba City has exceeded the number of required parent signatures (45) and teacher (2) signatures in support of this petition for a new charter school. (see Appendix 1.)

Yuba City has educational and wellness hotspots that align with the need for New Pacific School – Yuba City. A combination of factors existing in the schools including low academic achievement, chronic absenteeism, and suspension rate indicates a lack of connection between the schools and the families. As detailed below, within a mile of the target location, there are two elementary schools, one middle school, and one comprehensive high school. Each of these schools serve a student population that is almost entirely socioeconomically disadvantaged.

Bridge Street E.S. is 12% Black or African American, compared to 1.9% Districtwide, and 5.9% statewide; and nearly 3-times the statewide average for Homeless youth . All schools, including Gray Avenue Middle School and Yuba City High School, exceed the state average for Free and Reduced Price Lunch and Socioeconomically Disadvantaged. Bride Street E.S., Gray Ave. M.S., and Yuba City H. S. all exceed District and state averages for Students with Disabilities.

Chronic Absenteeism is defined as missing 10% or more school days in elementary or middle school. It is a marker of connectedness to school. Missing school has significant and proven adverse effects on academic performance. A greater percent of Socioeconomically Disadvantaged students are chronically absent (17.4%) at Gray Ave. M.S. then compared to the District (13%) or the state (11.4). Students in the Two or More subgroup attending Bridge Street E.S. were twice as likely to be chronically absent (44%) – over 4-times greater than the state average, and twice the District average. These numbers indicate that need for new approaches to connecting with students in order to improve belonging and academic achievement.

For student achievement data, we used 2018-2019 SBAC results because it was the last year of valid and complete data prior to the COVID-19 pandemic which impacted students, families, and the education system and resulted in school closures, distance learning, extreme changes to learning and home environments, and variations in state testing and accountability measures.

English performance is lagging behind state standards, especially for Black, Asian, and White students, with scores ranging from -1.8 to -125.6 points from standard when deficiency is present. Although there were some exceptions to low academic achievement, overall the trend in proficiency was significantly below state standards and especially for Hispanic students and students who are socioeconomically disadvantaged.

In math, all schools ranged -8.1 to -166.6 below standard for students with few exceptionalities. Black/African American students and Latino students are performing far below their state counterparts at Gray Avenue Middle School and Bridge Street Elementary, which progresses to significantly worse performance at the high school level. Asian students who achieve well above average for the state are struggling to meet standards in Math in Yuba City, likely due in part to the large Southeast Asian population.

New Pacific School will use project-based learning (“PBL”) and social-emotional learning (“SEL”) to engage students, increase connectedness to each other, and increase academic achievement in Yuba City . Pacific Charter Institute has worked with Project Lead The Way (“PLTW”) for a decade, which provides transformative learning experiences for PreK-12 students and teachers across the U.S. We create an engaging, hands-on classroom environment and empower students to develop in-demand knowledge and skills they need to thrive. We also provide teachers with the training, resources, and support they need to engage students in real-world learning.

A growing body of research has shown that PBL is an effective way to bring rigor and relevance for English learners, socioeconomically economically disadvantaged students, and students who are performing below grade level.

A comparison cohort study examines the impact of professional learning on K-12 learners in Lindsay Unified School District in Lindsay, California. The study found that students with teachers who participated in project-based learning professional development between 2017 and 2019 demonstrated statistically significant growth in reading, math, and history, when compared to peers whose teachers did not participate in professional learning.² A recent randomized controlled trial of 2,371 third-grade students in 46 schools engaged in interdisciplinary PBL units emphasizing science, mathematics, and literacy as well as SEL and traditional instruction. Of the schools in the study, 62% of students qualified for free and reduced-price lunch, and 58% were students of color. Researchers from Michigan State University and the University of Michigan found that students in the PBL program significantly outperformed their peers in traditional instruction in science by 8 percentage points on average. Students engaged in PBL units also reported the value of reflection and collaboration more frequently than their peers in traditional instruction. These results held across socioeconomic levels and reading levels.³

The Collaborative for Academic, Social and Emotional Learning (“CASEL”) is a trusted source for knowledge about high-quality, evidence-based SEL. Leader in Me is a CASEL-approved, research-validated comprehensive process designed to address social emotional needs, college and career readiness, and the development of a strong leadership culture. New Pacific School will partner with Leader in Me to support implementation excellence and professional development that is essential for sustained academic achievement and culture. According to CASEL, SEL can ease emerging bilingual students' transition into schools and communities because it promotes strong relationships with educators and peers and lessens the challenges of learning new cultural norms. SEL also nurtures cooperation, clear communication, and conflict resolution. Additional benefits include stress management, motivation, self-efficacy, and confidence to seek and offer assistance when it's needed. Researchers found that the Leader in Me program in Missouri public schools had a positive impact on attendance rates and 42% fewer discipline incidences than predicted in performance matched controls.⁴

A 2016 study found that key elements of Leader in Me promote an increase in student motivation and positive peer interaction.⁵ These elements include goal-setting and data tracking, leadership roles and opportunities, and a leadership culture that promotes student ownership of learning. A study of the long-term behavioral impacts of Leader in Me within this case study showed a dramatic linear decrease in the number of behavioral incidences in a Chicago elementary school as a school implemented the Leaders in Me process. More significantly, data showed that positive changes in student behavior were long-term. These same students had fewer discipline problems once in junior high: 31% overall decrease in elementary behavior incidents within a year of teaching Leader in Me program, continued decrease the following two years of the study and 88% overall decrease in junior high behavior incidents once filled with students who had experienced Leader in Me in elementary school.⁶

A study about the relationship between Leader in Me and student academic achievement in San Diego found that students who reported frequent use of Leader in Me behaviors in their daily lives performed significantly better on their ELA tests than those who reported less frequent use of Leader in Me behaviors.⁷ The evidence shows that PBL and SEL can have a positive impact on the students with similar demographics and characteristics as those in Yuba City.

Fiscal Impact

The Yuba City School District does not have qualified interim certification and approving the charter school would not result in the District having a negative interim nor is it under state receivership. The cost of serving students that choose to enroll in New Pacific School will be the responsibility of New Pacific School and Pacific Charter Institute, the organization that oversees New Pacific School. Pacific Charter Institute's board of directors approved $530,000 to support the start-up of New Pacific School, and the three-year budget and cash flow does not rely on grants or outside loans.

In making comparison to District programs, we referenced the information provided on State Accountability Report Cards (SARC) for comparison school from 2021-2022 school year.

New Pacific School – Yuba City offers a student-driven approach in a small school environment –both of which are unique to Yuba City that will not duplicate any existing District programs. The school will have 100 students in grades TK-5, compared to 472 students at Bridge Street Elementary (K-5) or 563 students at Park Avenue elementary (K-5). Local schools offer pieces of the curriculum and instructional approach but do not offer a comprehensive, student-driven whole-child approach to project-based learning including STEM, social emotional learning, and inquiry-based curriculum in grades TK-12. Gray Avenue Middle School has 710 student at the middle school, compared to just 75 middle school students at New Pacific School – Yuba City. Finally, Yuba City High School has 1,900 students compared to 100 high school students at the Charter.

There is no evidence that the District is systemically implementing personalized learning approach that leverages using a student-driven project-based approach, which includes individualized learning plans, mastery-based grading, workshop/presentation Friday's or inquiry based learning.

There is no evidence that the District offers instruction in foreign languages continuously from grades K-12, or that they are committed to 1-to-1 computing for all students.

There is evidence that Yuba City Unified School District has recently began to offer early college through a partnership with Yuba Community College, has been integrating social emotional learning into existing school culture and climate, even prior to the pandemic.

However, New Pacific School – Yuba City was designed with academic, social, and emotional learning at the core, placing Leader in Me at the center of the school culture for students and adults. That full integration is distinct from the District’s approach to social emotional learning.

New Pacific School will be open to all students who wish to attend, including low-achievers, high-achievers, English Language Learners, Foster youth, students experiencing homelessness, and students with disabilities. If interest exceeds seats available, a public random lottery will be held to admit students. There will be no entry examinations, interviews, or letters or recommendations. Each student’s Learning Growth Plan will act as the road map for tailoring the pace, format, and delivery of academic and social-emotional learning.

D. Description of an Educated Person in the 21st Century

New Pacific School believes in the mission that connection and belonging is the birthplace of a transformational learning experience. It is our vision that after graduating from our K-12 program, students will supersede their individual circumstances and not only navigate through a rapidly changing world, but also make it a better place. This navigation implies that our students are prepared for any college, career or community setting to offer their signature impact.

Our learning community believes that the 21st century educated person is an empathetic, balanced, inclusive, self-directed, resilient lifelong learner. A scholar-leader embodies all these traits. This duality involves a masterful academic: inquisitive, creative, analytical, communicative, and persuasive. They can read, write, speak and problem solve both independently and collaboratively in a variety of settings. The leader component of a scholar-leader is one skilled in habits of success: responsibility, compassion, and courage with integrity. This fully realized learner is able to assess problems at a local or global scale and use acquired knowledge to enact a sustainable impact.

Such an educated person would need a program based on collaboration and 21st century tools. It would demand a rigorous competency-based program that is both interdisciplinary and deeply rooted in California's state standards: Common Core State Standards ("CCSS"), Next Generation Science Standards ("NGSS"), English Language Development ("ELD") Standards, History-Social Science ("HSS") Standards and Framework, and Career and Technical Education ("CTE") Standards. Such persons would need to adapt to evolving technologies and modes of connecting intra/interpersonally and globally. This learner must have SEL frameworks that allow students to discover and create their learning identity and a personalized, tailored approach to academic mastery. This person would need a learning community with staff members consistently building their capacity to nurture the scholar-leader and a team of parents, guardians, teachers and partners committed to their whole-child growth.

Pacific Charter Institute has a long history of supporting students of all levels and abilities to meet high expectations through caring, intentional staff and student relationships. The organization is deeply committed to every child's own goals and growth as a learner. New Pacific School continues this tradition by enlisting all stakeholders in the support of each child's voice and choice in the learning process.

E. How Learning Best Occurs

New Pacific School staff believes learning best occurs in a community that is committed and, in an environment, designed to support the following approaches:

MTSS:

- Franklin Covey's Leader in Me is a schoolwide and practical classroom framework for students to self-regulate and self-direct their educational experience. Instituting practices and support at all levels of the school establishes a school climate and culture of self-accountability and school support.
 - Los Angeles Institute of Restorative Practices, a Right Brain Institute, are the practices, systems, supports and learning at all levels that ensures student behavior is supported through a neurobiological and trauma-informed lens.
 - Personalized Learning – Growth Plans: The Academic Triangle -- the relationship between parents, students, and teachers -- develops using student data to make the learner the focus. The student outlines and agrees to goals, plans and strengths with the support of parents and

Rigorous Learning Environments

- Classrooms are co-taught in larger classrooms to optimize teacher facilitation and student collaboration.
- Classrooms transform into “Away Missions” with enterprising and experiential field trip learning.

Evidence – based Pedagogical Strategies:

- Standards-based Instruction - Common Core, NGSS, HSS, CTE and SEL aligned.
- Project-based Learning (“PBL”) - Personal, inquiry-based, differentiated and rigorous: students will meet the demands of college, career and community learning by using 21st century skills in relevant contexts.
- Interdisciplinary Curriculum - Instead of segmented subjects, students tackle projects across different curricula, applying reasoning from math, language arts and others for demonstrations of learning.
- Inquiry-based Learning (“IBL”) - Projects are facilitated based on student interests, strengths and inquiry-based questions. Projects are ultimately student-driven.
- Data Driven Instruction - Students will use their own data to develop learning goals. Additionally, teachers will meet in Professional Learning Communities to analyze class data and make informed, data-driven decisions during planning and design.
- Integrated Technology - Learners will have access to 1:1 dedicated computing devices, hotspot internet upon request, an organizational help desk infrastructure and supportive training.
- Direct Instruction - While not engaging in PBL, teachers will design direct learning experiences to build student skills mastery in one on one or small group instruction.
- Mastery-based Learning - Using formative assessments and intervention tools from Edmentum, students will have a personally designed learning path specific to each learner so students can master skills and address individual learning gaps.

Teacher Professionalism

- Resourceful, Well-qualified and Supported Teachers: Instructional staff are trained in both MTSS frameworks and have an active voice in feedback and program growth.
- Continuing professional development is part of the school’s focus on lifelong learning.
- Teachers will have protected, integrated planning and collaboration time during the school day.
- Staff members receive the same SEL support from administration that students receive from instructional staff.

Integration of Community Learning

- Authentic Learning Experiences: In addition to experiential learning from field trips, students develop projects from real-world contexts, through interaction with speakers, experts and research skills.
 - College, Career and Community Exploration: Life after K-12 is a focus at all grade levels. Learners are embedded in a college/career-based culture as a way to understand learning contexts and impact.
 - Dynamic Community Partnerships: While K-8 learners engage community partners for their in-class learning, secondary students will seek internships or advanced education experiences from thoroughly vetted community partners and local community colleges.
 - Culture of Community and Support: Parent education and community resources is a PCI practice that allows students to feel supported in all community settings.

F. Objectives of New Pacific School

The objectives of New Pacific School include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- To make Social Emotional Learning the central foundation of our work.
- To serve students from all social, cultural, and economic groups.
- To provide a personalized education experience that offers a distinctly different choice in public education for families.
- To offer a wide breadth of challenging learning experiences and environments.
- To empower students to be caring, self-determined lifelong learners and agents of meaningful change.

G. A Day in the Life of a New Pacific School Student

The New Pacific School experience can occur before a student even arrives at school. Students will have access to materials and resources 24/7 through school-provided integrated technology devices.

Upon entering the classroom in the morning, teachers will check-in as a group and individually to assess needs and wellness as students engage in morning routines and celebrations.

As part of the Leader in Me curriculum, students will focus on a virtue in action and analyze their own progress as they develop or revise their current goals. Through direct instruction, facilitation and equitable groupings, teachers will advance students through their Depth of Knowledge (“DOK”) in all academic areas. Teachers will also assist students in meeting goals using MAP data and interventions as necessary through the ExactPath system.

Students will also collaborate on cross-curricular inquiry/project-based learning (IBL/PBL). This is the ultimate practice of inquiry, self-direction and self-determination. During the school day, or after school, students may connect with their staff mentor who connects the child throughout the year when they need to see a fresh face outside the classroom. This is a community practice for both certificated and classified staff.

After school, students will meet up with their parent/guardian / grown-up who just finished a parenting workshop about “Supporting Learners at Home” or “Boosting Executive Functioning” or even “The Brain During Preliteracy.” At New Pacific School, students learn through community engagement and education. Lifelong learning is a treasured cultural practice.

At home, students will continue to work on their outlined goals—to catch-up or get-ahead. Students may work agreed upon interventions by their Academic Triangle of students, parents or guardians, and teachers. Students may also continue to extend the learning as part of their accelerated learning plan to stay challenged or engaged. Students stay committed to their work and their plan because they helped build the path themselves.

H. A Whole Child Education: Our Social Emotional Learning Frameworks

Leader in Me (Franklin Covey) Foundation for Students

Students are more complicated and more adept to learning and leading than the traditional pedagogy and educational tools enable. Knowing this we will use the Leader in Me framework to bring out the best in our students through three core principles; leadership, culture, and principles. Grounding our educational program on this proven system used in 4,400 schools worldwide will bring out the best in our students using Leader in Me. We will augment the social emotional support of our students while also building their capabilities as citizens and students through a range of strategies and techniques (Table 18). Social emotional learning is not a program but a cultural and environment norm embedded into the instructional day. Just as important, the skills, strategies, and norms that the students learn at school will be with them in the community and at home.

Table 18. Leader in Me, CASEL, and ACES

Leader in Me and Social Emotional Development

It is critical that we focus on the well-being of our students. Leader In Me will support student-centered tools and strategies. It complements and overlaps the key components for the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (“CASEL”) and is endorsed by the standard for social emotional learning (Table 18). CASEL emphasizes the CASEL 5 including:

- Self-Awareness
- Self-Management
- Responsible Decision Making
- Relationship Skills
- Social Awareness

Our acute awareness of these competencies will lead to students understanding and managing their emotions, setting and achieving their positive goals, developing and showing empathy, building positive relationships, and making ongoing responsible decisions. Our intent to work with the whole child will yield the best possible results across the academic spectrum for the students.⁸

Leader in Me, Adverse Childhood Experiences and Trauma – informed Care

New Pacific School recognizes the growing crisis of ACES. Leader in Me includes the tools to combat and remedy ACES in our students. This level of trauma has such an impact on students and learning that it has become a statewide public health initiative under the California Surgeon General Dr. Nadine Burke-Harris. She labels it a healthcare crisis.⁹

ACES are traumatic childhood events caused by abuse, neglect, or other often persistent household stressors, like witnessing domestic violence or alcoholism. Each adverse childhood experiences experienced in childhood increases a child’s risk of health and social issues, such as:

- Decreased Cognitive Ability
- Depression and Suicide
- Poor Academic Achievement
- Poor Work Performance
- Illicit Drug Use
- Adolescent Pregnancy
- Alcoholism

Offering Leader in Me’s evidence-based curriculum will address the health care crises listed above in alignment to the ACES outlined in the National Center for Trauma-Informed Care.

Institutions that have equitable values, policies, and disciplinary objectives create an environment where individuals can optimize their skills. From a neuroscience perspective when a human brain is calm and congruent which translates in suitable emotional modulation and cognitive functioning the individual is more receptive toward institutional goals, expectations, and norms. A significant element is the environment in which the activity is occurring. The environment must contain a fair process; restoration, innovation; and cultural sensitivity.

School systems are moving towards the practice of relationship building and social-emotional awareness as vectors towards academic success, develop a strong student growth-mindset and build a robust institution where character development can take place, and a culture of connectedness can influence daily school climate. Our schools have been plagued with tragedies and crises. These set a base for our youth to fear school and perceive it as unsafe. This mindset ignites different regions on the brain that exacerbate sometimes problematic behavior without proper regulation.

Right Brain Restorative Practices (“RBRP”)

RBRP is an implicit-self-centered modality which evolved through elements of social-emotional learning, humanistic psychology, and regulation theory. Right Brain Restorative Practices, the premise is to help an individual build the container necessary to internalize remorse, gain insight, and empathically develop accountability and restoration. RBRP helps build an adaptive social-emotional competent school, during adolescence various phenomena arise such as abstract thinking that requires more information and understanding of the why behind school policies, teacher directives, and school motivation.

Right Brain Institute at the Los Angeles Institute of Restorative Practices (“LAIRP”)

The LAIRP’s approach involves four quadrants. Scholar Capacity outlines the student and staff practices that are foundational to a trauma-informed and restorative school. The Systems quadrant lists the systems and measurable outcomes to monitor progress. Planning & Action Steps, cements the relationship between the institute and schools as actions and technical coaching unfolds. Feedback & Learning is how the school can improve its restorative culture through a 360 input/feedback look at all levels of the learning community.

I. Educational Program Overview

The New Pacific School year will be in compliance with the state’s requirements for instructional minutes for all grade levels. New Pacific School shall offer, at a minimum, the number of minutes of instruction set forth in Ed. Code section 47612.5, and the number of school days required by California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 11960. Attached, as Appendix 2, please find New Pacific School 2022-2023 school calendar which is 183 student days and 188 teacher days.

Informing Parents About Transferability of Courses and Eligibility for Meeting College Entrance Requirements

New Pacific School will pursue six -year WASC accreditation with approved “A-G” courses required for admission to the University of California and California State University systems.

The Charter School will inform parents on an ongoing basis of the transferability of coursework to other public high schools and an individual course’s “A-G” status (eligibility to meet college entrance requirements) through the course catalog and the New Pacific School website. This will ensure that high school pupils can meet California college entrance requirements.

J. Curriculum

Instructional Materials

New Pacific School utilizes a variety of curriculum resources outlined below. These resources are used to implement the California State Standards and to supplement project-based learning. Teachers develop curriculum maps collaboratively with their partner teachers and in grade level spans. Grade level alignment is analyzed regularly and triangulated with third party screeners including Exact Path and DIBELS. The curriculum adoptions for each content area are analyzed in-depth in an annual cycle. Decisions for new curricular adoptions are always made collaboratively and are aligned with our mission, vision, and goals.

The selection of curriculum balances innovation and timing as the subject areas are between adoption periods. Much has been learned regarding the efficacy of the adopted curriculum by PCI and the state of California. Students demonstrate a much higher threshold for learning coupled with major differences between individual learners. Because of this fact New Pacific School - Yuba City is focusing on curriculum that focus on state standards that require student inquiry to reach the highest Depth of Knowledge of 3 and 4 (degree of learning information and application of the concept).

Please see Appendix 3 for a sample scope and sequence of Mathematics, English Language Arts, and Science for grades 1, 7, and 9.

English Language Arts Curriculum Overview

Curricular Resources	SIPPS (Collaborative Classroom) Being a Reader (Collaborative Classroom)
-----------------------------	---

	Being a Writer (Collaborative Classroom)
Rationale	In the early grades, students benefit from a comprehensive foundational reading program designed to strengthen key literacy skills. Faithful implementation of the multi-component Collaborative Literacy program, together with timely intervention measures, ensures that all students are tracking toward reading proficiently by 3 rd grade. We also recognize that it is essential that developing readers cement a love of reading and explore the world of texts, including fiction, nonfiction, and poetry.
Features	The reading component, Being a Reader, combines explicit instruction in foundational skills with whole class lessons, small-group instruction, and independent learning. SIPPS will be used as a stand-alone intervention program or integrated as the decoding program with Being a Reader, depending on student needs; the scopes and sequences of the two are aligned. The reading materials provide students with opportunities for rich and rigorous evidence-based discussions. The writing component, Being a Writer, combines the writing process approach with guided instruction, especially in handwriting. Our teachers nurture ideas and assist with editing and presentation skills as needed. Social and emotional skills are woven into the program.
Application	New Pacific School teachers will use the comprehensive literacy program by Collaborative Classroom to put our youngest students' thinking at the center of their learning. Assessment of student progress in the program, together with regular early reading benchmarks through DIBELS, will guide teachers in making decisions about foundational reading instruction that are personalized and responsive to students' needs. Students will extend their knowledge of topics from the weekly lessons through daily independent reading and hands-on discovery, and they will apply their body of knowledge to culminating tasks in which they demonstrate their knowledge through integrated literacy skills. Beginning writers thrive with choice and independence as they practice the basic communication skills that they need to express their ideas and share them with others. Leader in Me Focus: Communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-discipline, goal achievement, self-direction learning, initiative, teamwork, listening skills, social-emotional learning
Training	Initial training begins with a virtual summer institute. Afterwards, teachers meet weekly to plan, adapt, extend, and integrate aspects of the program to best align with group needs and grade-band learning goals.

Table 23. English Language Arts Grades K-2

Curricular Resources	Making Meaning (Collaborative Classroom) Being a Writer (Collaborative Classroom) SIPPS (Collaborative Classroom)
Rationale	We want to develop confident readers and writers in the upper elementary years. Additionally, our English Language Arts (“ELA”) curriculum must foster academic competencies and critical thinking skills that will prepare students for increased rigor in the middle school years and beyond. To that end, we know that students must have access to high-quality core and supplemental programs that emphasize reading comprehension and vocabulary acquisition through increasingly complex texts across a wide range of genres. Student-centered writing instruction must create a culture of collaboration and expression.
Features	Making Meaning focuses on reading comprehension and vocabulary development and is configured to offer daily independent reading, integrated development of social skills, and regular student-teacher conferences. SIPPS is used for Tier II and Tier III intervention in the MTSS model. Beginning in 3rd grade, we also integrate student-driven book clubs into the weekly program. In the upper elementary years, Being a Writer integrates close reading of exemplar texts, critical thinking about texts, and authentic writing for various purposes and audiences.
Application	Teachers will directly teach comprehension strategies through read-aloud experiences. Through guided and independent strategy practice, students will practice these strategies to make sense of their own reading. New Pacific School teachers allocate plenty of time for independent reading practice and individual conferences to support students developing as readers at their own pace. Students have time to listen to and think deeply about texts and share ideas respectfully with their classmates. During Book Club, students pursue personal goals in comprehension, fluency, and engagement with peers. Using Being a Writer as a primary resource, New Pacific School offers a student-centered writing program--which honors time, choice, response, and community—in order to help students grow into independent, competent, and confident writers. Finally, students engage in collaborative STEAM-focused projects across the curriculum for authentic audiences, and their culminating projects will showcase their growing written and oral presentation skills. Leader in Me Focus: Communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-discipline, goal achievement, self-direction learning, initiative, teamwork, listening skills, social-emotional learning

Training	Initial training begins with a virtual summer institute. Afterwards, teachers meet weekly to plan, adapt, extend, and integrate aspects of the program to best align with group needs and grade-band learning goals.

Table 24. English Language Arts Grades 3-5

Curricular Resources	CommonLit.org Selected sets of novels and nonfiction titles Units of Study in Argument, Information, and Narrative Writing, Grades 6-8 (Heinemman)
Rationale	Middle school readers and writers need rigorous and relevant instructional materials that provide them with opportunities to become proficient and powerful readers and competent and confident writers. Teachers will focus on student acquisition of strategies for both comprehension/analysis skills and written and oral communication skills. The workshop model will allow us to differentiate and meet the needs of our students where they are in terms of both interests and abilities.
Features	CommonLit.org is a free web-based collection of literary resources that teachers can use to build lessons and units that target students' reading needs and interests. Texts are organized by themes, genre or literary device, or Lexile level. There are also many sets of paired texts on topics or themes, some of which are multi-media. Genres include news stories, articles, speeches, poetry, and short stories. All passages are accompanied by assessment and discussion questions. The in-house library contains sets of grade-level novels and works of nonfiction that support the themes and guiding STEAM concepts around which their projects are based. Readers learn to consolidate skills so they can use skills and strategies with automaticity supported by frequent and targeted feedback. The writing program consists of a year-long writing workshop, with explicit teacher instruction is delivered through thoughtfully designed mini-lessons. Developing writers learn to use writing process: rehearsing, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing their writing.
Application	The reading and writing workshop models drive the instructional model. Guided by essential standards and using the adopted programs as resources, teachers explicitly teach strategies and skills not only during the mini lessons but whenever students need reinforcement. Student ownership of their literacy projects is emphasized as they work independently on small-group and individual projects. Teachers hold conferences with individuals and groups of students, and students

Training	Training in CommonLit.org is minimal and self-guided. Teachers complete a 1-hour video orientation from the publisher (Teachers College Reading and Writing Project). Teachers will collaborate regularly to plan STEAM based units of study, mini lessons for direct instruction, and a system for

Curricular Resources	CommonLit.org Assorted novels and nonfiction books Writable
Rationale	To support our high school students, we focus on harnessing instructional resources that allow us to graduate skilled readers, competent communicators, and lifelong learners who are prepared for college coursework, the workplace, and community involvement. Threads of inquiry aligned to STEAM, rather than conventional subject-specific classes, empower students to explore topics of personal interest and make important intellectual connections. At the heart of these threads of inquiry are the critical reading, writing, research, and speaking/presentation skills which the high school English program at New Pacific School engages and nurtures with an integrated vision.
Features	New Pacific School teachers have robust and flexible resources available from which to build coursework that meets unique needs and interests of each learner. Throughout the school year, students complete a variety of engaging assignments, take part in research-based group and individual projects, and create a substantial body of written and oral work. CommonLit is a free web-based collection of literary resources that teachers use to build lessons and units to support literary analysis and vocabulary development and expansion. Texts are organized by themes, genre or literary device, or Lexile level, with many sets of paired texts on topics or themes. Genres include news stories, articles, speeches, poetry, and short stories. The range of questions, along with the ability to annotate and comment on reading as well as check students' understanding,

	challenges students to engage with texts and moves them toward thinking critically about what they read and their world. CommonLit is used in tandem with Writable, a digital writing program featuring customizable assignments that guides students in their composition, feedback and revision processes. Writable’s embedded accessibility features support all learners, with students able to toggle on audio instructions for each writing prompt and teachers able to push out additional scaffolds such as starter sentences or paragraphs and prefilled graphic organizers. Spanish-speaking students who are learning English can toggle the navigation menu between English and Spanish.
Application	Teachers engage regularly with students in pre- and post-reading activities and plan collaboratively with the team to develop meaningful challenges that require students to use writing, speaking, and technology to express understanding. Students read and analyze relevant literature, articles, and multi-media texts in connection with all projects and lines of inquiry. Units of study are holistically designed and provide options for students to practice and demonstrate mastery of grade level skills and aptitudes. The CommonLit experience is perfectly aligned with New Pacific School teachers' curricular needs in ELA and what students need in order to grow as readers. Weekly Writing Labs through the Writable platform offer students personalized feedback and structured opportunities for individual growth throughout the writing process. The teaching team creates assignments within the platform that are guided by customized rubrics that align with the STEAM curriculum. Through the Dashboard, teachers are able to drill down through categories, skills, and standards to monitor and support each student. Leader in Me Focus: Communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-discipline, goal achievement, self-direction learning, initiative, teamwork, listening skills, social-emotional learning
Training	Writable requires significant training followed by a learning curve as teachers get to know the tool through actual application with students. Teachers use the bank of recorded mini-courses and live webinars provided by the Writable Team professional learning. New Pacific School teachers will also benefit from the significant online community of users that share experiences, tips, and lessons. CommonLit.org does not require specific training; it is aligned with New Pacific School teachers' curricular needs in ELA and what students need in order to grow as readers. The high school team requires time to explore and align the materials with their integrated, projected-based learning goals. As such, the team will collaborate over the summer to plan integrated STEAM units of study that include elements of direct instruction and independent group learning. They will also design short and long-term projects that embed high-impact instructional elements of the English curricular resources.

Mathematics Curriculum Overview

Curricular Resources	JUMP Math (2020)
Rationale	In a variety of studies, JUMP Math has produced significant improvements in achievement and attitudes towards math. JUMP Math curriculum was designed and built based on the belief that “all children can learn math, all teachers can teach math, and both can enjoy it.” When students experience success and demonstrate that they are capable of learning math they become less anxious and more actively engaged. The lessons command that students are not passive learners; rather ones who are actively engaged in generating their own understanding and able to apply the knowledge in exciting new ways. Cognitive research suggests that children are easily overwhelmed by too much new information. JUMP Math lessons progress from basic to challenging concepts and provide students abundant opportunities to consolidate these concepts. Teachers, students, and parents benefit from the immediate assessment feedback and scaffolded plans for intervention. In addition to increasing students’ self-esteem and attitudes towards learning, JUMP Math is dedicated to building a more equitable society through math education. In response to debunking the assumption that learners have natural hierarchies of ability, JUMP Math created an infrastructure to challenge teaching and societal norms and is suited to accommodate diverse needs and help close the achievement gap. This is done by focusing on the importance of strengths of the brain while building up weaknesses through student exploration and discovery.¹⁰
Features	JUMP Math student and teacher resources are designed to be used by teachers in a classroom setting, and also offer opportunities for home, remote, and virtual learning. The pre-built lesson plans are comprehensive and flexible allowing teachers to present questions and extensions that engage and challenge a diverse range of students. Every learning skill has an aligned digital lesson and a robust assessment and reteach/practice plan. The digital lessons include a wealth of diagrams, sample problems, practice exercises, extensions, and bonus questions. The assessment and practice guides provide additional opportunities for teachers to target skills or concepts that need additional attention and allow students to demonstrate mastery.

¹⁰ J. Bisanz et al. (2010) Foundations for Numeracy: An Evidence-based Toolkit for the Effective Mathematics Teacher. Canadian Child Care Federation and Canadian Language and Literacy Research Network, p. 44

Application	JUMP Math refers to its curriculum design as "Structured Inquiry" because students practice inquiry in manageable steps. Students will be expected to discover and understand mathematical concepts by answering questions and working through challenges on their own using their Assessment and Practice books. Teachers can quickly identify exactly where guidance will be needed and can follow-up by asking a series of higher-order thinking questions that foster a rich understanding and help steer students through the incrementally more challenging activities. Most importantly, this immediate assessment and feedback creates a sense of collaboration among the students, the teacher, and the family and lets students know that they will not be allowed to fail. Leader in Me Focus: Communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-discipline, goal achievement, self-direction learning, initiative, teamwork, listening skills, social-emotional learning
Training	JUMP math lessons are also supported by a wide range of research and cognitive science. For this reason, JUMP Math ensures that teachers are professionally trained in using the lessons as they were intended. Initial training will be prior to the school year. Professional development enables teachers to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify student needs and progress monitor • Provide tailored assistance with a full range of supports • Maintain the end goal in mind through questioning, praise, and encouragement • Control student frustration levels by incrementally raising the level of difficulty • Assist in creating independence by balancing guided practice, problem-solving, and conceptual extensions Once teachers have the opportunity to experience the curriculum hands-on with their students, the PCI Academic Support Team will provide ongoing one-on-one, and group professional development catered to specific needs.

Curricular Resources	Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Integrated Math I, II, III
Rationale	To support our high school students, we combine 21st century teaching with instructional resources that will allow us to prepare students with the math skills necessary for the workforce or college coursework. The HMH Integrated Math curriculum is built on the 5E instructional model--Engage,

	Explore, Explain, Elaborate, Evaluate--to develop strong conceptual understanding and mastery of key mathematics standards.
Features	The 5E instructional model built into the lessons helps teachers guide students through the learning. Teachers will create and customize assignments aligned to specific lessons or Common Core standards. Teachers will monitor student progress through a multitude of learning and progress reports. Students in need of additional support will receive it through the teacher-directed reteaching, the library of On-The-Spot Lesson videos, peer support, or through applications in the Personal Math Trainer.
Application	Students have opportunities to apply the learning as they move through the 5E instructional model. Students will begin with an initial engagement activity and will provide opportunities to explore the new lesson skills in a variety of ways to develop a deeper understanding. Students are then provided with a formal explanation of the concepts through step-by-step interactive examples. Learners are asked to elaborate their understanding by answering a series of designed higher-order teacher question. Finally, students apply skills and concepts with the embedded evaluative exercises and lesson performance tasks. Leader in Me Focus: Communication, critical thinking, problem solving, self-discipline, goal achievement, self-direction learning, initiative, teamwork, listening skills, social-emotional learning
Training	The PCI Math Program Specialist provides an initial teacher training overview of the high school curriculum. Teacher will collaborate weekly with New Pacific School teachers. Further ongoing training is provided as the teacher becomes more embedded in the curriculum and as needs arise for teachers and/or students.

Science Curriculum Overview

Curricular Resources	Project Lead the Way Launch and Carolina Building Blocks 3D
Rationale	Engaged confident students feel empowered to create, solve problems and imagine themselves as inventors, engineers, artists and scientists. The impact of decreased hands-on science instructional time was highlighted in a 2012

New Pacific School redefines the elementary classroom. The focal point of the day for a student at New Pacific School is inquiry and project-based learning. Curricular Resources	Project Lead the Way – Gateway to Technology Carolina Science Science and Technology Concepts for Middle School (“STCMS”)
Rationale	New Pacific School has chosen an inquiry student-directed core science curriculum that continues the elementary focus on “Doing Science”. Carolina Science has worked in collaboration with the Smithsonian Institute on an inquiry focused middle school curriculum-STCMS. The Smithsonian Science and Technology Concepts curriculum was validated by a five-year study done by the Smithsonian Science Education Center to test its theory of action – which it calls LASER (Leadership and Assistance for Science Education Reform). The evidence from the study supports the efficacy claims of research-based, hands-on science taught through inquiry. Students showed significant gains in their ability to apply what they have learned particularly in subgroups of students most in need (EL, FRL, and IEP). Additionally, middle school students statistically outperformed their peers in both math and reading (https://landing.carolina.com/stc-resources/smithsonian-i3-laser-research-study.) PLTW Gateway to Technology offers Career Technical Education at the middle school level and opens the doorways to career possibilities that will help inform students to consider further education post high school and career opportunities. Pacific Charter Institute offers all PCI middle school students the additional Virtual Course opportunity to participate in the Amazon Future Engineer computer science curriculum using Edhesive Curriculum.
Features	Project Lead the Way Gateway students at New Pacific School - Yuba City will continue in their refining application of the Engineering Design Process-based teaching and learning model that they started in the elementary LAUNCH program. The problem solving and activities begin to open career possibilities in the Health Profession, Computer Science and Engineering. Students work collaboratively in teams to solve real world problems. Each Gateway course is a semester long and two are offered per year on a two-year cycle in addition to the Virtual Computer Science course offered through PCI. Student teams are required to present culminating projects to their peers, parents and the community at the end of each unit. Smithsonian STCMS puts real world and experiential phenomena

in students' hands- in every lesson. Students as real scientists pose their own questions. Scientific literacy is used in print and digitally to bring context to the students' lives. Digital resources serve to extend the students' learning but not as the access point to their learning. Like the Elementary Building Blocks curriculum students continue to experience a coherent learning progression to facilitate a deeper understanding over the course of a module. A life science, physical science and earth science unit are taught each year on a three-year cycle. At the end of each unit of study, students are required to present culminating projects to their peers, parents and the community. Grades 9-12
Curricular Resources	Project Lead the Way Edhesive Future Engineers
Rationale	Among US college students, degree completion in the STEM field is half of what it was in 1960. We realize that National data from ACT scores in Math and Science 2008 show less than 43 percent of the test taking students are prepared for postsecondary coursework in the STEM disciplines. At NEW PACIFIC SCHOOL we have accepted the challenge to prepare our students for emerging opportunities in the workforce of STEM opportunities. A study done by the RTI International, an independent nonprofit research organization, on The Role of STEM High Schools in Reducing Gaps in Science and Mathematics explored how students in STEM schools progressed in terms of advanced science and mathematics course taking and passing, with a focus on students who are underrepresented in STEM (https://files.eric.ed.gov/fulltext/ED570098.pdf) The study included inclusive STEM schools primarily accepting underrepresented students with lower end-of-grade science and math test scores. The key findings suggested that STEM schools are more equitable than the non-STEM schools. STEM schools were more successful in reducing the achievement gap in taking and in passing advanced mathematics and science classes. Another longitudinal, nationally representative study of the influence of STEM instructional practices (Hansen & Gonzalez, 2014) in secondary school found that hands-on materials in mathematics was positively related to students subsequently pursuing a degree in a STEM field, whereas those who reported frequent use of computers in mathematics were less likely to earn STEM degrees. In science, students who reported more lecturing by their teacher and frequent book use to learn how experiments should be run were less likely to go on to receive a STEM degree (Maltese & Tai, 2011). New Pacific School strives to not only offer project-based pre-engineering curriculum but equally engaging, inquiry focused advanced courses in science to encourage students to take the most rigorous courses in advanced sciences and mathematics.
Features	New Pacific School - Yuba City over a period of four years will build a smaller, more academically engaging school. The classroom is designed to function as laboratories for students to solve real-world problems, emphasize connection in the fields of mathematics and science, integrate technology into classrooms, support teachers and promote out of school learning in co-curricular activities. New Pacific School, an inclusive STEM school without selective admissions criteria, believes that with appropriate opportunities ALL students can develop STEM skills. Features of STEM study include following the specific engineering design principles that promote higher student engagement. Teachers deliver instruction by facilitating creativity and learning

through the design process. New Pacific School - Yuba City believes that the pre-engineering PLTW program equips teachers with high quality training and project-based curriculum that allows students to explore career paths in Health Sciences and Engineering.

Edhesive Computer Science offered through the PCI Virtual Platform in partnership with Amazon Engineering provides students with the fully sequenced and paced digital curriculum, teacher resources, and professional development.

New Pacific School - Yuba City values the expertise needed to teach engaging, high quality inquiry-based science. New Pacific School - Yuba City students are offered advanced courses in science that compete in engagement and relevance to STEM through the PCI Virtual Platform. Students experience hands-on learning with Carolina NGSS 3-Dimensional Labs. Each lab investigation starts with phenomena, integrates the dimensions of NGSS, and generates proof of learning. Our PCI teachers are the key to the success of our advanced science courses. They use an assortment of quality resources to engage their students; including Discovery Techbook with its award-winning digital content, Biozone instructional resources that dive deep into relevant experiences and activities that zone into the science practices, and a large collection of collaborative teachers created integrated project-based learning experiences designed by PCI teachers in collaboration with cross-curricular specialists. NEW PACIFIC SCHOOL participates in the spring in the PCI collaborative outreach with the UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine and the One Health Institute. Each spring PCI works to bring real life work and experience to research and restoration efforts done at UC Davis.

Course offerings are strategically selected for student success. Students begin as freshmen developing baseline skills and progress with the goal in mind of college readiness and career exploration. All New Pacific School - Yuba City students are expected to showcase their learning to their peers, parents and community on a weekly basis as they progress through projects and investigations.

Table 31. Science Grades 9-12

History-Social Science

Social studies courses focus on the California History Social Science Framework published by the California Department of Education Sacramento, 2017. The framework clearly lays out by grade level the expected content for the students to master. This Framework complements the project-based learning supported by self-determination of Leader in Me so students are able to work individually as well as collaborate with other students. The curriculum and tools to support the project-based learning include PBLWorks Resources and Glencoe McGraw-Hill. The students will research, develop, produce, and present the Framework concentration that New Pacific School utilizes allowing for in depth understanding of the period at their grade level. Students will use primary sources to develop an understanding of the period. This will be supported by online subscriptions that are rich in content and accuracy including United Streaming (Discovery Education), university libraries, and local libraries. This work will ensure that students understand their roles in society as citizens. Students will demonstrate through demonstration and discourse their understanding of the subject matter. This assessment process will include summative and formative opportunities with peers and the teacher. Students begin with the guiding questions from the adopted Framework. For example, the 2nd grade students are prompted with the following questions about 'people who make a difference': How do families remember their past? Why do people move? How can we best describe California? How does the government work? What makes someone heroic? Teachers will guide students through the inquiry while also increasing their depth of knowledge. The English language arts content selections, math exploration, and science project-based learning will complement the Framework to ensure students are able to contextualize the historical or ideological timeframe with the literature and arts that occurred at that time.

Leader in Me Focus: valuing diversity, self-direction learning, time management, vision, creativity, initiative, and goal achievement

Training: Teachers will collaborate prior to the semester to develop idea trees for the students based on the framework key questions. Teachers utilize rubrics to determine students' formative and summative understanding of history through student centered expressions of work and analysis.

Foreign Language

New Pacific School will utilize the World Languages Standards for California Public Schools adopted 2019 to guide the foreign language program. The primary foreign language will target Spanish and engages in conversational elements and is supported through online programs and in school support. All students TK-12 will engage in foreign language. The goal for students will be to become proficient in Spanish to the extent that they can use it to engage in the global economy. The study of Spanish at New Pacific School also will expose students to the cultural and historical components of the language. The school will utilize the teachers, classroom volunteers, and community members to support speaking Spanish in the classroom. The students will also use online language acquisition programs such as Rosetta Stone and Babel. The school will also offer experiential live virtual classes to promote international cultural awareness. Language acquisition will be infused in the project-based learning for the students. Students learn the fundamentals of the language and culture including history, cultural practices, visual arts, and idioms. The school provides students with Internet access for home use of the program. The students will demonstrate competency in standards addressing communication, cultures, and connections as understanding the foreign language requires diligence. Students engaged in learning through their multiple years will improve through the continuum of novice, intermediate, advanced, and possibly superior based on the student interest in the individual standards.

Leader in Me Focus: Self-discipline, critical thinking, public speaking, listening skills, valuing diversity, problem solving, and global awareness.

Training: Teachers will work with the PCI team outlining the instructional plan including use of online tools, scheduling of volunteers, and goal setting by Regular professional development and training occurs quarterly to evaluate actual against goal success of students.

Fine Arts

New Pacific School recognizes the importance of visual and performing arts and offers a variety of venues and mediums at all grade levels to expose students to a quality fine arts program and to develop their talents. The school will use the State Board of Education-Adopted Arts Framework (2020) as a guiding tool for the art program. The design of the Arts Framework focuses the action of art, which applies to the hands-on project-based learning at New Pacific School. Publishers provide materials that teachers are able to select through student interest derived by individual and collaborative discussions. The arts will be integral to the whole child development and will provide students the opportunity to blend the arts into their project-based learning in science. The students will be exposed to diverse artistic impressions that are both local and global to develop a full appreciation of the arts including dance, media arts, music, theater, visual arts, and industrial arts. A culturally relevant curriculum is the key to maximizing inclusivity and to building relational trust in the classroom.

Leader in Me Focus: Creativity, Global Awareness, Social-Emotional Learning, Valuing Diversity, Relationship Building

Teacher Training and Professional Development: Teachers will collaborate in developing curriculum goals and expectations with partners including Friends of Sacramento Arts. Teachers will review quarterly using student reflections, parent surveys, and analysis of outcomes against goals.

Physical Education

New Pacific School students engage in a physical education curriculum that is inclusive and data driven. The goal of the physical and health education curriculum is to promote healthy lifestyles among students and their families through the development of positive physical and social-emotional practices. The physical education and health curriculum covers the following strands: movement skills and knowledge, self-image and personal development, and social development. Also, sports and games from other cultures augment classroom units of study. The program content will reflect the guidelines from the Physical Education Model Content Standards for Kindergarten Through Grade 12 (January 2005). The standards clearly outline the 'self-responsibility' of the students that aligns with Leader in Me self-determination. The school will also incorporate the President's Challenge that promotes the students' personal endeavors including the Active Lifestyle program. Students will become stronger, more flexible, eat healthier, and develop life-long habits towards fitness and healthy lifestyle. These personal goals will be coupled with the schoolwide goals Leader in Me including collaboration and reflection. Students in grades five, seven, and nine complete the physical fitness assessment through the state of California in the spring of each year. The school requires the elements outlined by the California standards for physical education with the goal of instilling a positive self-image and creating an internal motivation for fitness and a healthy lifestyle.

All students grades 5, 7, and 9 will complete the statewide Physical Fitness Test ("PFT"). The main goal of the test is to help students in starting life-long habits of regular physical activity.

Leader in Me Focus: Teamwork, Self-Discipline, Listening skills, Valuing Diversity, Vision, and Goal Achievement.

Training: Teachers will work with the PCI team, physical education experts, and fitness experts outlining the instructional plan including use of online tools and goal setting through regular professional development and training occurring quarterly to evaluate actual against goal success of students.

Training

Professional Development Goals for Teachers

The school implements these goals by adopting specific goals and practices for teachers and other school staff:

1. Ensure that students are ready for college by maintaining a common set of high standards for every student.
2. Instill powerful teaching and learning in schools by designing rigorous instruction that fosters the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
3. Redefine professionalism by having a collaborative work orientation and a commitment to improving the capacity of staff.
4. Foster shared leadership by developing a shared mission for their school and shared leadership for improved student outcomes.
5. Personalize educational resources by knowing students well enough to help them achieve academically.
6. Implement a purposeful design by allocating resources so best practices become common practice (NCNS, 2013b).

K. Graduation Requirements

The graduation requirements include four years of English, three years of math, two years of science (life and physical), two years of physical education, three years of social science, one semester of health, one semester of geography, and one year of foreign language and/or visual and performing arts and/or career technical education course. This is the minimum for graduation, but every student will be encouraged and supported to complete the requirements for UC/CSU. Faculty, staff, and families are responsible for making sure students not only meet graduation requirements but exceed them whenever possible (Table 32). The stakeholders seek input on improving programs at the school through the California Department of Education, California State University and the University of California. The PCI Board and/or the executive staff reserve the right to modify, amend, and improve New Pacific School, course offerings, and graduation requirements as necessary to achieve the mission and goals of the charter.

L. Advanced Education (previously known as Concurrent Enrollment)

New Pacific School students in high school will be encouraged to pursue concurrent enrollment at their local community college as soon as they are prepared for the curriculum and the college environment (maturity). Students will meet the minimum requirements of the college and upon approval by the counselor and family the student will take courses at the community college to augment learning at New Pacific School. Staff will monitor and support the students who are taking college courses to ensure that they will be successful. Techniques that will support the students include accompanying the student to the school, meeting the professor, and ensuring the right textbook and materials will be purchased. In addition, students will be helped with assignments by email, phone, or in person, and help the student plan the semester using the syllabus. The teachers also ensure that the students are aware of and familiar with all the academic support programs on the college campus.

M. Instructional Method and Self-Determination

The classroom focus on student self-determination will allow each student to maximize learning rather than whole class instruction only. In whole-class instruction of 25-35 students there will be a risk that students are not understanding or keeping up with the rest of the class. The traditional classroom risks student frustration and apathy when not successfully remediated. As we multiply this whole class instruction phenomenon during the course of the day students in whole class learning will either be suppressed from advancing or depressed from not understanding throughout the day. The self-determined pedagogical setting of the classroom will solve this by employment of a dynamic teacher that uses data and Leader in Me principles to ensure students become both self-aware of their ability and self-directed to focus on their instructional goals (intrinsic motivation). This follows the research by Ryan & Deci (2000) that intrinsically motivated students garner better learning so students that flourish in competence, autonomy, and relatedness. Further, by training the teachers in Leader in Me we ensure that learners focus on the intrinsic motivation of the students they too become more focused on reaching intrinsic motivation for students. ¹⁴

Further, project-based learning is essential to the program's success to develop self-determination and greater inquiry. Project Lead the Way is a leader in sequential, inquiry-based projects for grades K-12. PCI has used PLTW for over 10 years and in doing so has successfully mastered the K-12 program with over a dozen trained teachers covering the grade span.

New Pacific School uses dynamic project-based learning coupled with acute data on each student's academic status. This is coupled with a curriculum that lends itself to inquiry by the students rather than step-by-step instruction for the whole class. The students performing project-based learning in the lower grades will increase their confidence in doing this type of learning as they get older.¹⁵ Students completing Project Lead the Way project-based learning demonstrated positive learning in mathematics and science. ¹⁶

The teacher uses Leader in Me principles as well as the 7 habits of a successful person to pre-identify daily and hourly, which are small groups for the Common Core content areas that need addressing. Explicit instruction is the model that all teachers and parents are encouraged to use when conducting lessons. The key to this instructional methodology will include three main parts: 'I do it, we do it, you do it'. This notion will mirror the medical doctor methodology of learning; 'See one, do one, teach one'. The staff of New Pacific School will rely on Leader in Me and the Franklin Covey strategies coupled with the framework of professional learning communities. This is coupled with the Academic Triangle.

New Pacific School relies on three critical elements to successfully educate the students: the parent, the student, and the well trained teacher. The dynamics surrounding this vital geometry ensures that the student and parent both realize the scope of the overarching goals for all students at the school. The teacher manages the directional elements to help the student develop the personal learning tools to successfully complete the curriculum.

N. Integrated Technology

New Pacific School will be 1:1 devices for all students. The PCI Information Technology Department currently utilizes Panda remote support systems as well enforcing the most stringent Children's Internet Protection Act ("CIPA") protocols. PCI also utilizes effective, discrete online programs to supplement hands-on learning. The use of technology will support and enhance student learning and help students with the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium standardized test.

The school will utilize software programs and resources aligned with the state standards. The programs include, but limited to, Sonday (Winsor Learning), Exact Path, Lexia, Reading Eggs, Rosetta Stone, and Math Seeds. As technology advances, programs listed will be complemented with new products or even replaced with better ones. In addition, students use desktop programs including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint and take a basic keyboarding course as needed. The school will use online instructional tools from the major publishers. Finally, Pacific Charter Institute developed and implemented its own A-G and middle school virtual platform with teachers from the organization offering math, science, and language arts as needed.

New Pacific School will use the full suite of PowerSchool to monitor student achievement including Performance Matters for student data mining. This tool allows teachers to make targeted decisions for academic direction. PCI single subject teachers utilize Schoology to build, teach, and monitor students in specific content areas and at the high school level A-G mathematics and A-G science. Schoology coupled with Microsoft 365 will also allow teachers to seamlessly communicate with families. The technology may change for New Pacific School regarding the systems students use to monitor and reflect on their learning.

O. College and Career Advising

New Pacific School wants every student that chooses to enroll at the school to arrive at a learning plan and develop a course of studies that meets his or her individualized needs. Project-based learning ensures students will be exposed to a wide range of educational strands. Because of the breadth of students' abilities and interests, the school counselor leads the college and career counseling component creating the best possible opportunities. New Pacific School will offer a variety of choices for students including college field trips, collegiate mentoring, planning programs, and individual meetings with families. Parents will be in regular communication with the counselor as this is core to Leader in Me. The school counselor will also arrange trips to local colleges including community colleges, colleges, and universities as well as specialty programs including culinary academies, automotive, welding, construction, medical, coding, practical engineering, and information technology. College and career planning is not only a high school endeavor but rather a kindergarten through grade 12 expectation.

The counselor will be in constant communication with teachers and staff regarding each student. The school counselor will set up regular meetings with students of all grades to encourage reflection and inquiry. The counselors will also include regularly scheduled meetings called Counseling Power Hour. This will be a weekly virtual meeting that speaks to relevant and timely topics that are of interest to middle and high school students and their parents. Topics covered have included graduation requirements, college application assistance, FAFSA walkthrough, work permits, holiday stress management, study skills, and time management. All of the Power Hours will highlight Leader in Me strategies and self-determination.

P. Professional Development and Staff Collaboration

New Pacific School professional development requirements for teachers, specialists, and classified staff will be essential to meeting the goals for the school, students, staff and families. Teachers will be expected to be innovative in their daily interaction with their students including curriculum analysis and data analysis, program implementation, and instructional strategies. Teachers will regularly analyze curriculum and student learning through the lens of the students and parents. Through these data sources, the New Pacific School team developed a plan for addressing the greatest identified needs. This will be an ongoing continuous improvement process. (See Table 33.)

A key function of teacher collaboration will be to dissect best practices with the curriculum, engage in and attend professional development, collect data, analyze student achievement, and to provide learning opportunities for other teachers at New Pacific School. We know that our curriculum and project-based learning collaboration will accelerate student learning. Our staff realizes that every student will be different, so the programs used are adjusted to ensure academic growth for every student. This team will collaborate with the PCI Academic Team ensuring the usage of the appropriate professional development and collaboration tools from the educational partners. Key elements of whole-staff development include analysis of student achievement by using different disaggregated data sets, differentiated instruction strategies particularly focusing on strategies such as curriculum mapping and Backward Design¹⁷ to gather feedback and ideas for classroom instruction.

New Pacific School will adopt a reflective model of professional learning wherein teachers will be encouraged to share ideas, discuss successes and areas growth, and then refine their instruction based upon reflection and analysis. Informal and formal classroom observation with teaching peers and administration will be a key method for growth.

Current professional development priorities include aligning new approaches to math teaching and learning, Project Lead the Way and Carolina Science, ELD Framework and Methods, Bias Training and Cultural Proficiency, Digital Literacy/Digital Citizenship, and Exceptional Learner Accommodations, School Safety, Leader in Me strategies and planning which includes Social Emotional Learning and conflict resolution strategies. PCI also ensures all trainings are completed that surround the safety of our students and staff including Sexual Harassment: Policy and Prevention, digital awareness, bullying, mandated reporting, CIPA, Youth Suicide: Awareness, Prevention, and Postvention, and diversity awareness.

Q. At-Promise Students: Plan for Students Who are Academically Low Achieving

All students and teachers will be trained in the Leader in Me principles with a clear focus on their whole child's well-being. This allows students to assert self-determination as a method to best find the learning path based on the data and well-being of the individual. Students, parents, and the teacher will have a clear academic portfolio of the student including formative assessments completed daily in the project-based learning activities. The student's individual reflection on the work will allow for an authentic view of where the student is and where the student strives to succeed. This will be a part of the backwards mapping process with each student having clear goals for the year and broken down into regular segments of time.

Coupled with the formative assessments the student will have summative performance data including Exact Path Diagnostic, embedded curriculum assessments, and rubric writing samples allowing for regular feedback on progress towards the academic goals. The teacher will work in small groups with students to continue forming new opportunities to close the achievement gap while also building the student's resilience stabilized by the Leader in Me environment. Every content curriculum including Jump Math, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt integrated I, II, and III, Project Lead the Way, Carolina Science,

¹⁷ <https://cft.vanderbilt.edu/guides-sub-pages/understanding-by-design/#benefits>

Making Meaning (Collaborative Classroom) Being a Writer (Collaborative Classroom) SIPPS (Collaborative Classroom), and CommonLit.org all will offer bridging pathways for at-promise students.

Because of this fundamental support our clear focus on the student academically will be a shared process with the parents and guardians, the student, and the teacher. There will be no mystery as to where the child is, how the child will improve, and the tools and strategies to accomplish this task. The teacher, student, and parent will all have access to innovative curriculum including state standards-based curriculum along with the support services offered by the school. The students will be assessed in reading by DIBELS and/or NWEA MAP assessment to determine their independent and instructional reading levels. The students two or more grade levels below in reading will be provided targeted intensive intervention tools and strategies provided seamlessly at school and at home. Along with the academic assessment and performance the older students' transcripts and report cards will be analyzed to determine the shortcomings both in terms of grades received and number of credits completed. This logical acute process ensures the student will receive exactly the intervention to advance forward. student. New Pacific Teachers will be trained to identify the gaps in student learning and to uncover recovery strategies through small group instruction, project-based instruction, and support with the families.

At-promise students will be provided support with their daily work while catching up with skills and concepts that they do not understand. All New Pacific School students will remain competitive with their peers at the traditional public schools while maintaining a focus on their future goals. Therefore, it will be built into the academic program centered on self-determination that each teacher consistently and effectively monitors and ensures opportunities are reteaches standards, skills, and concepts that are not mastered. Staff development and collaboration (outlined above) will be the backbone to ensure the success of at-promise students so as to eliminate the academic gap.

Multi-Tiered System of Supports

New Pacific School will allow for a Multi-Tiered System of Supports through a variety of mechanisms. The foundation of the school will be Leader in Me methodology and culture. This essential component allows for student self-determination and accountability. This is coupled with discrete learning and doing artifacts including portfolios, NWEA MAP data, formative and summative assessments, and the reflections written by the students at the end of every day. Based on this information the teacher, the parent and the student are able to determine if a more intensive intervention is required. At that point, the Academic Triangle will initiate a Response to Intervention.

Response to Intervention

New Pacific School teachers and staff will utilize the Response to Intervention Model ("RTI") to ensure learning will be occurring if students do not have success using the current instruction. After an appropriate RTI process, students requiring further modifications other than additional instruction and re-teaching will trigger the Student Study Team ("SST"). The SST will use a systematic problem-solving approach to assist students. The SST will clarify problems and concerns; develops strategies and organizes resources; provides a system for school accountability; and serves to assist and counsel the parent, teacher, and student. An SST will be a general education function. Many students will benefit from an SST, including, but not limited to, those students achieving below or above grade level and students who have experienced emotional trauma, behavioral issues, or language acquisition issues.

Anyone who has a concern for a student will be able to refer that student to an SST based on the RTI model for consideration. All interested and appropriate stakeholders will be included in the SST to provide information to share about the student's strengths, specific concerns, and effective or ineffective strategies used in the past. These people may include, but are not limited to, teachers, parents, counselors, doctors, administration, social workers, and specialists from PCI. The meeting will be designed to bring together a team of advocates who work together for the benefit of the student. After implementation of an SST plan and follow up, if the problems persist revisions to the plan may be discussed, or if necessary, a referral for special education or Section 504 assessment might be deemed necessary by the SST. Although the SST process is not a special education function the special education teacher pushes into the classroom and will be available for guidance and strategies as needed. In addition, the counselor will be pushing into the classrooms as well to provide observational and strategic support during the class day.

R. Plan for Students Achieving above Grade Level

In order to provide effective programs and curriculum for high achieving and gifted students, New Pacific School will offer a continuum of approaches and options that meets a wide range of abilities, interests, and learning styles. Leader in Me and self-determination by the students will demand that the teacher, the program, and the curriculum are scalable to meet the needs of the high achieving students. Project-based learning coupled with the student educational plan will clearly outline the depth that the student requires to continue the accelerated learning path. Every content curriculum including Jump Math, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt integrated I, II, and III Project Lead the Way, Carolina Science, Making Meaning (Collaborative Classroom) Being a Writer (Collaborative Classroom) SIPPS (Collaborative Classroom), and CommonLit.org all will offer accelerated pathways. The Exact Path assessment (or equivalent) will be used as a formative tool along with embedded assessments to determine the areas in which the student will be excelling in the curriculum. Teachers can build advanced learning goals using a variety of tools including individualized instruction, concurrent enrollment, supplemental curriculum, and online age-appropriate support for the student.

High achieving students will also be identified based on their grades from their previous schools, as well as interviews with the students, their parents, and their CAASPP scores. Since all learning plans will be individualized, the students will accelerate into a higher-level curriculum and courses. Students in the elementary level working above grade level will be given materials that are academically accelerated yet also appropriate for the age level. Since New Pacific School will be grounded in project based learning and self-directed inquiry there will be ample opportunities in science, math, language arts, social studies, and the arts for the students to find avenues of academic acceleration. This will be an integral benefit of the self-determination classroom allowing the student and teacher to have the opportunity to develop and implement higher level depth of knowledge access. For instance, a 3rd grade student performing at the 6th grade level in mathematics will be provided with the support materials and project direction to expand the learning opportunity. In fact, as students become more self-aware they will be capable of adjusting the curriculum with the support of the teacher. We know that some students may just require a tutor or access to higher level learning in the classroom and this will be made available. The expert use of Project Lead the Way, Carolina Science, writing excellence, and the integrated math program all allow for higher learning. For example, using the NGSS crosswalk for K-2 students studying light and sound, higher level opportunities will arise including introducing and applying equations, projects that demonstrate the properties of light and sound, and presentation of their discoveries to the class on Presentation Fridays. Regardless of the scenario the goal will be to challenge the student up to and including college level work if it is required to sustain the inquiry of the child. We know parents expect their children to be challenged at their ability level and New Pacific School will be acutely aware of this.

S. Plan for Emerging Biliterate Learners

Overview

New Pacific School will meet all applicable legal requirements for English Learners (“EL”), including Long-Term English Learners or English Learners at risk of becoming Long-Term English Learners, as they pertain to annual notification to parents, student identification, placement, program options, integrated and designated language development instruction, teacher qualifications and training, reclassification to fluent English proficient status, monitoring and evaluating program effectiveness, and state mandated assessment requirements. New Pacific School will implement policies to assure proper placement, evaluation, and communication regarding ELs and the rights of students and parents. New Pacific School will integrate ELD Standards, the California English Learner Roadmap, and the ELA/ELD Framework into its classroom instruction, and invest more resources into professional development in these areas as needed.

Home Language Survey

Prior to initiating the Home Language Survey (“HLS”), New Pacific School will inquire whether the student has already been enrolled in a California public school. If a student has already been enrolled in a California public school, the HLS will not be administered and identifying information regarding language status will be pulled from the California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System (“CALPADS”). However, if the parent or legal guardian indicates that the student has never been enrolled in a California public school, the HLS will be administered and kept on file. Once a new student registers and either CALPADS identified the student as an EL, or the parent indicated on the HLS as speaking a language other than English in the home, the assessment coordinator will be notified, and an appointment will be scheduled to administer one of the two different English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (“ELPAC”). This assessment will determine whether the student will be designated as an EL and offered integrated and designated ELD or will be designated Initially Fluent English Proficient and does not require language development assistance.

Once a student is identified as an Emerging Biliterate Learner (EBL), teachers will meet with a team of administrators, parents, and our EL coordinator to develop an Individualized Learning Plan to address the needs of the English Learner. The plan will be guided by the California ELD Standards and the California English Learner Roadmap. At the end of the year the ELPAC Coordinator will reassess the student to determine if they meet local criteria for reclassification to English Proficient. The English Learner team meets each trimester to review the English Learner’s progress toward meeting goals.

English Language Proficiency Assessment

All students who indicate that their home language is other than English, will take the ELPAC. The ELPAC has four proficiency levels (Level 4: well-developed; Level 3: moderately developed; Level 2: somewhat developed; and Level 1: minimally developed) and is aligned with the 2012 California ELD Standards. The ELPAC consists of two separate assessments:

Initial Assessment ("IA")

The ELPAC IA is used to identify students as either an English Learner or as Initially Fluent English Proficient. The IA is administered only once during a student's time in the California public school system based upon the results of the home language survey. The locally scored IA will be the official score. The IA is given to students in grades K-12 whose primary language is not English to determine their English proficiency status.

Summative Assessment ("SA")

EL's will take the SA every year until they are reclassified as fluent English proficient. The ELPAC SA will only be given to students who have previously been identified as an EL based upon the IA results to measure how well they are progressing with English development in each of the four domains. The results will be used as one of four criteria to determine if the student will be ready to be reclassified as fluent English proficient, to help inform proper educational placement, and to report progress for accountability.

The ELPAC IA and SA will be administered in a combination of computer-based, and/or paper-pencil format, dependent on grade level, and will be administered in seven grade spans K, 1, 2, 3-5, 6-8, 9-10, and 11-12. In kindergarten and grade 1, all domains will be administered individually. In grades 2-12, the test will be administered in groups, exclusive of speaking which will be administered individually. Duration of testing will vary depending upon the grade level, domain, and individual student.

The IA testing window is year-round (July 1-June 30). Any student whose primary language is other than English as determined by the Home Language Survey and who has not previously been identified by an English Learner by a California public school or for whom there is no record of results from an administration of an English Language proficiency test, shall be assessed for English language proficiency within 30 calendar days after the date of first enrollment in a California public school, but not before July 1 of the current school year.

The SA testing window will be a four-month window (February 1-May 31). The English language proficiency of all the currently enrolled English Learners shall be assessed by administering the test during the annual assessment window.

New Pacific School will notify all parents of its responsibility for ELPAC testing and of ELPAC results within thirty days of receiving results from the publisher. The ELPAC shall be used to fulfill the requirements under Every Student Succeeds Act for annual English proficiency testing.

Teachers at New Pacific School will rely on both formative and summative assessments to evaluate content knowledge and language development. Formative Assessments will include, for example, teachers collecting exit slips, listening to group collaboration, or regular informal checks for understanding. Summative assessments take a variety of forms including tests, written assignments, presentations, digital portfolios, or a student produced project. Teachers will monitor students' growth to ensure students are meeting or exceeding grade level standards and that students are continuing to make academic and linguistic progress.

For our students designated as EBL, we will review their ELPAC results in addition to other assessment results to further inform our instructional supports, services, practices, and instruction for our students. We will also implement our own local measures of assessing through the ExactPath Diagnostic assessment given three (3) times per year.

Strategies for Emerging Biliterate Instruction and Intervention

Students identified as Emerging Biliterate Learners will be supported through a combination of integrated and designated English language development (ELD) instruction. Designated ELD instruction will take place during flexible instructional block periods. (See Tables 19-22) The strategies for supporting an Emerging Biliterate Learner's capacity for acquiring both social and academic language proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and listening will be visible in and outside of classrooms at New Pacific School. will plan their lessons and curriculum in alignment with both CCSS and ELD standards through an integrated model of classroom instruction. As teachers at New Pacific School recognize that every Emerging Biliterate Learner has a different language proficiency, teachers will make appropriate adjustments to curriculum and instruction by considering language proficiency, language demands of tasks, and the students' linguistic and cultural assets.

To support language development, classrooms at New Pacific School will intentionally design language rich contexts to ensure that learning will be meaning-centered, and content accessible through extra linguistic cues. Scaffolding principals to support low-stakes language acquisition will be integrated into every lesson. Scaffolding strategies used to lower the language demands of content will include building or tapping into a student's prior knowledge (e.g., a concept map), monitoring the cognitive load of activities (e.g., chunking reading), including opportunities for peer collaboration (e.g., think, pair, share), and cultivating metacognition (e.g., self-assessment).

Some additional strategies teachers implement will include sentence frames, graphic organizers, presenting content through multiple modalities (visually, verbally, in writing), emphasizing key content and academic vocabulary, implementing peer collaboration, providing low-stakes feedback, offering alternative assessments, and offering a variety of hands-on materials. Further, teachers will be skilled at analyzing language demands of assignments and implementing strategies to reduce the cognitive load for language learners. Frequent formative assessments by the teacher and support staff will ensure that the learner will make adequate progress in alignment with the ELD and Content Standards.

New Pacific School will place emphasis on Project Based Learning that will be supportive of English language acquisition. New Pacific School will also use a variety of supplementary curriculum that supports language acquisition in alignment with the ELD Standards. Using an integrative model, teachers will adapt lessons and curriculum to meet the linguistic needs of all the learners in their classroom by scaffolding lessons and activities.

The supportive school culture at New Pacific School will also support a low-stakes environment for language acquisition. When an English Learner joins New Pacific School, teachers and staff will form an open line of communication with the parents or legal guardians. New English Learners will be matched with supportive peers and a network of adults at the school site who will regularly check-in with the student and family's social and emotional well-being. New Pacific School will recognize the value of cultural and linguistic diversity, and we seek to provide enriching opportunities for students and their families to share their cultural and linguistic heritage with our classrooms and in our larger community. As outlined in the CA English Learner Roadmap, bilingual instruction will be supported. New Pacific School refers to California Department of Education's "Quality Indicators" in providing translations to native language(s) to encourage parent involvement in the school, in sharing important school updates, and in sharing information about a child's progress in school.

ELPAC scores will be used to develop an Individualized Learning Plan ("ILP") for the student that includes goals and a plan for meeting those goals through integrated classroom support and potentially designated English Language Development instruction. The ILP will be constructed by a team of teachers, administration, and the students' parents/guardians. The ILP will be reviewed and updated annually upon the receipt of the ELPAC results. If the student's goals are not met, alternative interventions and resources will be considered by the team.

Teachers at New Pacific School will receive annual training in the ELD standards and SDAIE strategies and methods of instruction with the objective of ensuring that all classrooms at New Pacific School provide research-based integrated methods of instruction and a rich environment for language acquisition for all levels of EBLs. Teachers will receive several hours of professional development in ELD Standards and Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English ("SDAIE") strategies in pre-service professional development and they will also receive collaboration time at least monthly to focus on curriculum mapping and unit design ensuring integration of ELD Standards.

New Pacific School recognizes that additional professional development and training from the statewide and county Curriculum and Instruction Departments in EL best practices and effectiveness of support, instructional scaffolding, and the curriculum framework and standards would be beneficial to further develop instructional approaches to instructing multilingual students. Particularly staff development in implementing the California English Learner Roadmap, the ELD Standards, the content standards, and the ELA/ELD Framework will be priorities for staff development through the next Charter Term.

Reclassification Procedures

Multiple criteria will be used in determining whether to classify a pupil as Reclassified Fluent English Proficient including, but not limited to, all the following listed below:

- Assessment of language proficiency using an objective assessment instrument including, but not limited to the ELPAC.
- Participation of the pupil's teachers and any other certificated staff with direct responsibility for teaching or placement decisions of the pupil to evaluate the pupil's curriculum proficiency.
- Parental opinion and consultation, achieved through notice to parents or guardians of the language reclassification and placement including a description of the reclassification process and the parents' opportunity to participate, and encouragement of the participation of parents or guardians in the reclassification procedure including seeking their opinion and consultation during the reclassification process.
- Comparison of the pupil's performance in basic skills against an empirically established range of performance in basic skills based upon the performance of English proficient pupils of the same age that demonstrate to others that the pupil is sufficiently proficient in English to participate effectively in a curriculum designed for pupils of the same age whose native language is English.

Monitoring

EL students will be continuously monitored for academic progress. Once a student has been designated as an English Learner, an ILP team will develop a plan for monitoring the implementation of instruction and student progress. Using student data derived from both formative and summative assessments including the CAASPP, NWEA MAP, and classroom benchmark assessments, teachers and administrators will determine if the regular program is addressing student needs or if further language development is required. New Pacific School will evaluate the effectiveness of its education program for EL students by:

- Adhering to New Pacific School adopted academic benchmarks by language proficiency level and years in program to determine annual progress.
- Implementing the California English Learner Roadmap and monitoring progress in meeting ELD standards as aligned with the ELD/ELA Framework.
- Monitoring teacher qualifications and the use of appropriate instructional strategies based on program design.
- Monitoring student identification and placement.
- Monitoring parental program choice options.
- Monitoring availability of adequate resources.

New Pacific School is committed to ensuring students who are classified as ELs and will meet all federal and state requirements for serving these students, including initial and annual identification and assessment of primary and secondary language fluency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, reclassification of ELs, and communication with parents/guardians of ELs. If the Charter School enrolls more than 21 ELs, there will be an English Learner Advisory Committee ("ELAC"). Teachers, administrators, and advisors will work collaboratively to provide ELs full access to the curriculum and to facilitate English language development.

T. Plan for Students with Exceptionalities

Overview

New Pacific School will comply with all applicable state and federal laws in serving students with disabilities, including, but not limited to, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act ("Section 504"), the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act ("IDEA").

New Pacific School will be deemed an independent local educational agency ("LEA") for purposes of special education, and will seek membership in a Special Education Local Plan Area ("SELPA") in accordance with Education Code Section 47641(a) and hereby acknowledges its responsibility as an LEA. Currently PCI schools belong to three SELPAs, including Twin Rivers Unified School District SELPA, Lodi Area Special Education Region (LASER) SELPA, and the El Dorado County Charter SELPA. New Pacific School will seek membership in the El Dorado County Charter SELPA; see Appendix 9.

The Charter School will ensure that all children with disabilities enrolled in the Charter School receive special education and designated instruction and services in a manner that is consistent with their individualized education program and in compliance with the IDEA. The Charter School will be solely responsible for its compliance with Section 504 and the ADA. The facilities utilized by the Charter School shall be accessible for all students with disabilities.

Services for Students under the "IDEA"

The following description regarding how special education and related services are provided and funded by the charter school for the sole purpose of providing a reasonably comprehensive description of the special education program in the charter petition and is not binding on the District. The specific manner in which special education and related services are provided and funded are outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU"), delineating the respective responsibilities of the charter school and the SELPA. A copy of the MOU will be presented to the District upon request.

The Charter School will provide special education instruction and related services in accordance with the provision of special education instruction and related services in accordance with the IDEA, Education Code requirements, and applicable policies and practices of the SELPA.

The Charter School will provide services for special education students enrolled in the Charter School. The Charter School will implement policies and procedures for seeking out and identifying and serving students who may qualify for special education programs and services and for responding to record requests and parent complaints, and for maintaining the confidentiality of pupil records. The Charter School will be exclusively responsible for the provision of services (including, but not limited to, referral, identification, assessment, case management, IEP development, modification and implementation). The Charter School agrees to promptly respond to all District or SELPA inquiries, to comply with reasonable District or SELPA directives, and to allow the District or SELPA access to Charter School students, staff, facilities, equipment and records as required or imposed by law.

Staffing

All special education services at the Charter School will be delivered by individuals or agencies qualified to provide special education services as required by California's Education Code and the IDEA. Charter School staff will participate in in-service training relating to special education by the Charter School and when appropriate, the SELPA.

The Charter School will be responsible for the hiring, training, and employment of site staff necessary to provide special education services to its students, including, without limitation, special education teachers, paraprofessionals, and resource specialists. The Charter School will ensure that all special education staff hired by the Charter School will be qualified pursuant to SELPA policies, as well as meets all legal requirements. The charter school will be responsible for the hiring, training, and employment of itinerant staff necessary to provide special education services to charter school students, including, without limitation, speech therapists, occupational therapists, behavioral therapists, and psychologists. Documentation of qualifications will be maintained on site for inspection.

Response to Requests

The Charter School will promptly address all requests it receives for assessment, services, complaints, IEP meetings, reimbursement, compensatory education, mediation, and/or due process, whether these requests are verbal or in writing.

Identification and Referral

The Charter School will be responsible to identify, refer, and work cooperatively in locating charter school students who have or may have exceptional needs that qualify them to receive special education services. The Charter School will adopt and implement SELPA policies and procedures to ensure timely identification and referral of students who have, or may have, such exceptional needs. A pupil will be referred by the Charter School for special education only after the resources of the general education program have been considered, and where appropriate, utilized.

The Charter School will follow SELPA child-find procedures to identify all students who may require assessment to consider special education eligibility and special education and related services in the case that general education interventions do not provide a free appropriate public education to the student in question.

Assessments

The term “assessments” has the same meaning as the term “evaluation” in the IDEA, as provided in Section 1414, Title 20 of the United States Code. The Charter School will determine what assessments, if any, are necessary and arrange for such assessments for referred or eligible students in accordance with applicable law. The Charter School will work to obtain parent/guardian consent to assess Charter School students when it suspects the student may have a qualifying disability under the IDEA.

IEP Meetings

The Charter School will arrange and notice the necessary IEP meetings. IEP team membership in the meetings will comply with state and federal law. The Charter School will be responsible for the following individuals to be in attendance at the IEP meetings: the Director and/or the charter school designated representative with appropriate administrative authority as required by the IDEA; the student’s special education teacher; the student’s general education teacher if the student is or may be in general coursework; the student, if appropriate; and other Charter School representatives who are knowledgeable about the general education program at the Charter School and/or about the student. The Charter School will arrange for the attendance or participation of all other necessary staff that may include, but not limited to, an appropriate administrator to comply with the requirements of the IDEA, a speech therapist, psychologist, resource specialist, and behavior specialist; and shall document the IEP meeting and provide the notice of parental rights.

IEP Development

The Charter School understands that the decisions regarding eligibility, goals/objectives, program, services, placement, and exit from special education shall be the decision of the IEP team, pursuant to the IEP process. All eligible Charter School students will be provided programs, services, and placements in accordance with the policies and procedures of the SELPA and requirements of state and federal law.

IEP Implementation

The Charter School will be responsible for implementation of IEPs and supervision of services. The Charter School will provide the parents with timely reports on the student’s progress as provided in the student's IEP at least as frequently as report cards for the charter school's non-special education students. The Charter School will also provide all home-school coordination and information. The Charter School shall also be responsible for providing all curriculum, classroom materials, and modifications and accommodations.

Interim and Initial Placements of New Charter School Students

The Charter School shall comply with Education Code Section 56325 with regard to students transferring into the Charter School within the academic school year. In accordance with Education Code Section 56325(a)(1), for students who enroll during the school year in the Charter School from another school district within the State, but outside of the SELPA with a current IEP within the same academic year, the Charter School shall provide the pupil with a free appropriate public education, including services comparable to those described in the previously approved IEP, in consultation with the parent, for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, by which time the Charter School shall adopt the previously approved IEP or shall develop, adopt, and implement a new IEP that is consistent with federal and state law.

In accordance with Education Code Section 56325(a)(2), in the case of an individual with exceptional needs who has an IEP and transfers into the Charter School from a district operated program under the same special education local plan area of the Charter School within the same academic year, the Charter School shall continue, without delay, to provide services comparable to those described in the existing approved IEP, unless the parent and the Charter School agree to develop, adopt, and implement a new IEP that is consistent with federal and state law.

For students transferring to the Charter School with an IEP from outside of California during the same academic year, the Charter School shall provide the pupil with a free appropriate public education, including services comparable to those described in the previously approved IEP in consultation with the parents, until the Charter School conducts an assessment pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Section 1414 of Title 20 of the United States Code, if determined to be necessary by the Charter School, and develops a new IEP, if appropriate that is consistent with federal and state law.

Non-Public Placements/Non-Public Agencies

The Charter School will be solely responsible for selecting, contracting with, and overseeing all non-public schools and non-public agencies used to serve special education students. The Charter School immediately addresses all parental requests for services from non-public schools or agencies, unilateral placements, and/or requests for reimbursement.

Non-discrimination

It is understood and agreed that all children have access to the Charter School and no student shall be denied admission nor counseled out of the Charter School due to the nature, extent, or severity of his/her disability or due to the student's request for, or actual need for, special education services.

Parent/Guardian Concerns and Complaints

The Charter School will adopt policies and procedures for responding to parental concerns or complaints related to special education services if it receives any concerns raised by parents/guardians regarding related services and rights. The Charter School's designated representative will investigate as necessary, respond to, and address the parent/guardian concern or complaint. The Charter School will respond to any complaint or investigation by the California Department of Education, the United States Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights or any other agency.

Due Process Hearings

The Charter School may initiate a due process hearing or request for mediation with respect to a student enrolled in the Charter School if it determines such action will be legally necessary or advisable. In the event that the parents/guardians file for a due process hearing, or request mediation, the Charter School shall defend the case. In the event that the Charter School determines that legal representation will be needed, it shall select appropriate legal counsel.

Instructional Process for Students with Exceptionalities

Upon enrollment, students identified as requiring special education services will have their enrollment packet forwarded to the Special Education Coordinator. Typically, the Special Education Coordinator requests the special education file (filed confidentially in school districts) for the student. During this time, the Special Education Coordinator will arrange an IEP to ensure the placement will be appropriate for the student. The IEP will be held, and specific plans will be put into place for the student, with the Charter School offering additional services to the special education students specific to the benchmarks outlined in the IEP.

New Pacific School will maintain the option to contract part-time with education specialist teachers to manage the students until such time that the position requires a full-time teacher. Teachers of students identified as having gaps in their learning but not identified as special education will have modifications completed using the Student Study Team Pre-modification packet as the first step with the RTI. The teachers will record the specific changes that they make and any progress or lack of progress that occurred during the following six-to-eight-week period. Students that do not make improvement with adjusted direct instruction and curriculum will be referred to either the Student Study Team for further modifications or the special education team for testing and an initial IEP. Students that qualify for special education will be processed through the Special Education Information System ("SEIS") and the students will begin using the agreed upon curriculum and instructional techniques. Some of the curriculum available to students beyond the state adopted materials include, but not limited to, Language!, Lexia, and Sonday Reading System. When students require more resources than available at New Pacific School, this will be addressed in the IEP, with resolution to this need determined at that time as agreed by the IEP team and outlined in the Parent Handbook.

Staff development for all the teachers regarding special education include the various appropriate interventions for SSTs. In addition, the teachers will work individually with the special education coordinator to develop individual strategies for specific cases based on the IEP benchmarks. Students with IEPs will have the benchmarks assessed monthly to ensure adequate progress will be occurring and the progress forms will be forwarded to the Special Education Coordinator for review and documentation for the next IEP meeting.

U. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act

The Charter School recognizes its legal responsibility to ensure that no qualified person with a disability shall, based on disability, be excluded from participation, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program of the Charter School. A student who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having an impairment, is eligible for protections under Section 504.

The principal assembles a 504-team including the parent/guardian, the student (when appropriate) and other qualified persons knowledgeable about the student to discuss the meaning of the evaluation data, placement options, and accommodations. The 504 team will review the student's existing records, including academic, social and behavioral records, and is responsible for making a determination as to whether an evaluation for 504 services will be appropriate. If the student has already been evaluated under the IDEA but found ineligible for special education instruction or related services under the IDEA, those evaluations may be used to help determine eligibility under Section 504. The student evaluation will be conducted by the 504 team and will evaluate the nature of the student's disability and the impact upon the student's education. This evaluation includes consideration of any behaviors that interfere with regular participation in the educational program and/or activities. The 504 team may also consider the following information in its evaluation:

- Tests and other evaluation materials that have been validated for the specific purpose for which they will be used and will be administered by trained personnel.
- Tests and other evaluation materials including those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need, and not merely those designed to provide a single general intelligence quotient.
- Tests that will be selected and administered to ensure that when a test will be administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the student's aptitude or achievement level, or whatever factor the test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the student's impaired sensory, manual or speaking skills.

The final determination of whether the student will or will not be identified as a person with a disability will be made by the 504 team in writing and notice will be given in writing to the parent or guardian of the student in their primary language along with the procedural safeguards available to them. If during the evaluation of the student, the 504 team obtains information indicating possible eligibility for special education per the IDEA, a referral for assessment under the IDEA is made by the 504 team.

If the student is found by the 504 team to have a disability under Section 504, the 504 team shall be responsible for determining what, if any, accommodations or services will be needed to ensure that the student receives a free and appropriate public education ("FAPE"). In developing the 504 Plan, the 504 team considers all relevant information utilized during the evaluation of the student, drawing upon a variety of sources, including, but not limited to, assessments conducted by the Charter School's professional staff.

The 504 Plan describes the Section 504 disability and any program accommodations, modifications, or services that may be necessary.

All 504 team participants, parents, guardians, teachers and any other participants in the student's education, including substitutes and tutors, will have a copy of each student's 504 Plan. The site administrator will ensure that teachers include 504 Plans with lesson plans for short-term substitutes and that he/she review the 504 Plan with a long-term substitute. The students file contains a copy of the 504 Plan. Each student's 504 Plan will be reviewed at least once per year to determine the appropriateness of the plan, needed modifications to the plan, and continued eligibility.

V. Plan for Health and Wellness

The wellness of all students will be a priority at Pacific Charter Institute. PCI began a wellness program in 2019 by developing a confidential School Culture and Student Support Survey of students to ensure that they were in a good mental space. The Wellness Team developed an additional program to assist students and families in navigating support within PCI, resources out in the community, and offer a safe place to discuss needs/concerns to improve the overall well-being and health of students and their families. The Wellness Team is made up of psychologists, school counselors, and the school nurse. Understanding that wellness is very personal, multiple confidential levels of support have been created. School counselors will be available to receive confidential information and hold discussions regarding students and school psychologists can be brought in to consult as needed. A confidential Wellness Referral Link that has also been established and is prominently placed on the Pacific Charter Institute website, and PCI Counseling websites will also be on the New Pacific School webpage. The Wellness Referral Link may be completed anonymously and can be left by anyone in the PCI family with the ability to attach images and screenshots as needed.

Because SEL is central to the school's mission, wellness will be inextricably tied to student learning. Both frameworks from Leader in Me and the Los Angeles Institute of Restorative Practices, will implement evidence-based trauma-informed practices that support neurological and physical health. These practices may include, but are not limited to mindfulness, restorative circles, kinesthetic strategies, movement in learning, student-staff mentoring, support animals, and mental health training for all staff. All staff members will receive training in these frameworks and will all participate in professional development for trauma-informed care.

Element B: MEASURABLE STUDENT OUTCOMES

“The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. ‘Pupil outcomes,’ for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the charter school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the charter school’s educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all pupil subgroups served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 52052. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(B)

A. Assessment Assumptions

The purpose of student assessments will be to support and guide the learning process. New Pacific School will implement rigorous assessments to ensure that student performance levels are meeting or progressing towards the state and school academic objectives. Our classroom-based assessments will be multi-faceted and developed in order to grasp a complete understanding of each students’ areas of growth and mastery of content. Assessments at New Pacific School will be developed and implemented based upon the following beliefs and practices:

- Teachers utilize assessments to understand student learning in order to drive instructional choices.
- To the degree possible, assessments should allow students multiple ways to show what they know.
- Student content mastery will be assessed using multiple measures that are based on an assessment program that improves learning and provides ample assurances of accountability and objectivity.
- Assessments should include reflective opportunities for students to self-evaluate their learning.

New Pacific School documents student achievement in relation to the California State Standards each year through state-mandated assessments as required by Education Code Section 60605. Students in grades 3-8 and 11 participate in the CAASPP, and students participate in all other mandated accountability programs (e.g., ELPAC, the California Science Test, etc.)

New Pacific School will also use NWEA MAP assessment (or another CCSS based 3rd party screener) which will allow us to measure growth and skill mastery for every student at New Pacific School. These common assessments help teachers at New Pacific School target instruction and help the Charter School administrators and teachers make well-informed system-wide decisions. Through these local assessments, New Pacific School faculty also will have the opportunity to compare student performance and growth to local, state, and national norms. It is understood that exit outcomes and performance goals may need to be modified over time.

When measuring student success in 21st Century Learning skills, New Pacific School teachers will utilize developmentally appropriate rubrics that align with the Leader in Me pedagogical and cultural expectations. A sample of matching life skills and goals as outlined in Table 34.

Life Skills	Goals Students will....
Collaboration and Cooperation	Gain knowledge of and demonstrate the managerial, adaptive, and associative skills appropriate to their level
Self-assessment	Assess themselves, be aware of their status, and accordingly change their own behavior and attitudes
Goal Setting	Learn to set their own short-term and long-term goals in keeping with their own goals and abilities
Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	Learn to be effective problem solvers and develop advanced critical-thinking skills
Self-discipline	Learn to control their behavior at all times while respecting and upholding the values of the community
Technology	Be familiar with current technology and use technological tools appropriately in their schoolwork and community service.

New Pacific School will use projects and lesson plans for each core subject according to the State Standards and statewide frameworks.

New Pacific School will meet all statewide state standards and conduct the pupil assessments required pursuant to Section 60605 and any other statewide standards authorized in statute or student assessments applicable to students in non-charter public schools.

B. Measuring Student Progress

New Pacific School will use data from a variety of sources in order to determine the success of its programs. In addition to state assessments such as the CAASPP, ELPAC, California Alternate Assessments, and the California Science Test (“CAST”), New Pacific School implements CAASPP Interim Assessments, and the NWEA MAP exams. Achievement data will be housed in PowerSchool Performance Matters, a data storage system which allows teachers and administrators to disaggregate student data based upon content strands, student subgroups, grade level, and teacher. This system will be tied to our student information system. In addition, the NWEA MAP exam will allow us to collect longitudinal normative data that allows teachers, parents, and administration to see if students are growing at an expected pace, regardless of where the student started. MAP normative data will also allow us to make predictions about what kind of growth is typical and atypical.

Use and Reporting of Data

Our online data housing system will allow us to collect, analyze, and report data related to student achievement in a timely fashion. With this information, teachers at New Pacific School engage in regular opportunities to analyze student data. Using Common Assessments and State Assessments teachers will analyze trends among grade level groups, reflect upon reasons for gaps and areas of achievement, and share instructional strategies to address gaps in achievement. Teachers will rely on proven strategies for data analysis and planning including curriculum mapping and backward design. Further, the small schools will allow for both vertical and horizontal student achievement particularly related to subpopulations of students to discuss, analyze, and develop strategies to support student learning. This process of collaborative reflection with data will inform decisions for professional development, optimizing curriculum effectiveness, and if necessary, the choice in curriculum.

Data on student achievement will be shared with our community at least tri-annually in both formal and informal settings with the teachers and staff, Zoom meetings, LCAP Meetings, and public Board of Directors Meetings. Data about individual student achievement is shared with students and parents in informal and formal conferences, in progress reports, and also at reporting periods in report cards. These communications will happen in person and will be memorialized using student parent teacher communication systems such as Schoology.

The school team will analyze the assessment and using the cycle of inquiry will determine the best academic plan for the students and the course of action of the teacher. Student results in each classroom along with other teacher-developed assessments, anecdotal records, and grades will be reviewed by the principal and teachers prior to each reporting period for school progress reports. The academic team will determine the specific causes for upward and downward trends, and action is taken to modify or revise current instructional practices as necessary. Student achievement data will provide additional insight into teacher effectiveness and is utilized as one component within the revised teacher evaluation process. The New Pacific School staff will present the process and results of student assessment data at regular meetings with the principal, the directors, and board of directors as needed.

All findings from the analysis of state and local assessments, and state and district comparisons continue to drive the allocation of the Charter School's resources. Funding recommendations and the scheduling of professional development activities will be made by the principal based on careful analysis of student achievement data. These recommendations will be passed on to the PCI Academic Team for academic feedback and reviewed with the business manager for fiscal planning. Final determination of implementation of all policies and initiatives will be the responsibility of the Executive Director in consultation with the PCI Leadership Team.

Individual student test score results will be mailed/emailed home to parents in a timely manner, and discussed, interpreted and analyzed for parents by classroom teachers during parent conferences scheduled in the fall of each school year.

Student-Teacher-Parent Conferences

Family partnership will be an essential component of New Pacific School. We will seek active family participation in every aspect of our school. While parent communication and informal conferences will be a vital component of our educational program, formal Student-Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held regularly to share students' progress and goals throughout the academic year. Students will have some role in leading the team meetings. With a gradual release of responsibility, students will be expected to lead their own Student-Teacher-Parent conferences in upper grades.

School Accountability Report Card (“SARC”)

New Pacific School Charter School will publish student results annually through the School Accountability Report Card in compliance with the legal requirements. The report will include facts and data about New Pacific School and will be made available to the public as required by law.

Annual Parent Survey

New Pacific School Charter School will administer an annual Parent Survey in order to gather data on our culture and climate. In this survey, parents will evaluate their child’s educational experiences at New Pacific School. The survey will measure parent satisfaction in the areas of student instruction, engagement, support and challenge with learning, their satisfaction with the social-emotional learning and conflict resolution skills (Leader in Me). In addition, the survey will allow parents to provide feedback on their perception of a healthy and safe school climate, parent involvement in a meaningful way, and satisfaction with communication, organization, and administration of the school.

Benchmarks

Benchmark testing will be conducted for all students every six weeks that reflects the normative curriculum and project-based learning expected outcomes in language arts, mathematics, English language development, and science.

The NWEA MAP test will be used as a bi/tri-annual assessment in grades 3-11. The MAP assessment is a standards-based adaptive measurement that utilizes an innovative computer-adaptive, internet-based model to target the instructional level of each student by altering question difficulty based on previous answers. Once the test has been completed, the results will be immediately available, providing an accurate evaluation of the student’s abilities and a learning path developed for the student to continue instructional support.

In addition to monitoring benchmark assessments, teachers and administration will collect and analyze data from Smarter Balanced Assessments in ELA and Math, CAST, ELPAC, and publisher created benchmark assessments. Benchmark assessment data will be clustered in alignment with the Smarter Balanced data to enable New Pacific School to monitor progress and predict growth on the California School Dashboard.

Individual Student Sample Assessment Reports

NWEA MAP assessments will be accompanied by diagnostic reports for parents, teachers, and administrators. These reports include:

- Descriptive, diagnostic assessment of student strengths and weaknesses

- Analysis of student growth over time

New Pacific School faculty and administration will establish benchmark assessments at every grade level in reading and math. Data from these benchmark assessments aids in tracking student progress toward academic standards. Meetings with teachers, parents, and administration focused on the achievement of students and how to support student growth in achievement will be held on a regular basis.

New Pacific School will meet all statewide standards and conduct all required state mandated student assessments required pursuant to Education Code Section 60605 and any other statewide standards authorized in statute or pupil assessments applicable to pupils in non-charter public schools. The standards include but are not limited to the CAASPP, CAST, ELPAC, the Physical Fitness Test, ("PFT"), and any other requirements that are applicable under state and federal law.

New Pacific School's schoolwide and pupil outcomes will align with the mission, curriculum, and assessment systems of the school. The New Pacific School program will be designed to help all students achieve a high level of academic success and be prepared for entry into four-year colleges and universities and / or career technical success. Students will demonstrate the core academic and lifelong learning skills further described in the tables below which describe the Goals, Actions, and Measurable Outcomes Aligned with the Eight State Priorities, which will be developed to align with the state standards, including the Common Core State Standards and Next Generation Science Standards, and to align with the State Priorities in compliance with Education Code sections 47605(c)(5)(A)(ii), 47605(c)(5)(B) and 52060(d). The assessment methods used will be those required by state or federal law, those required by external agencies (e.g., College Board), and those created/adopted by New Pacific School. The assessments developed by New Pacific School faculty and administration will be subject to review by PCI Academic Team, PCI Leadership Team, and the Pacific Charter Institute Board of Directors, which will oversee the school.

Some desired pupil outcomes will be objectively measurable. For New Pacific School, these will include acquiring the knowledge specified in the State Standards for public education as currently measured by the CAASPP, taking and passing the courses necessary to be eligible for admission to the UC ('A-G' courses), and taking the ACT and/or SAT for students' intent on four-year colleges that require them. In addition to these traditional measures, the school will measure certificate completion, concurrent enrollment, and dual enrollment. Our primary measurable goal in all categories compares favorably with other schools in the region with similar demographics.

Teachers will also measure progress in the traditional manner, including quizzes, essays, projects, performances, portfolios, exhibitions, tests, benchmark assessments, and exams. Teachers will discuss these assessments on a regular basis with parents and students. Students in grades K-2nd will be tested three times a year using the DIBELS Data System. This piece will inform the teacher and parent in the direction of future academic goals and highlights academic strategies for achieving those goals. Students in grades 6-12 will complete embedded assessments in their curriculum including math, science, language arts, and social studies. These assessments occur in periods no less than every six weeks.

There will be additional academic and non-academic pupil outcomes and qualities, however, which, while not objectively measurable, will still be considered vitally important. Specifically, students utilizing their skills developed through multiple social emotional learning frameworks will:

- Demonstrate an understanding of complex societies by applying cultural and historical knowledge, from field trip experiences provided by New Pacific School, to written and projects and tasks
 - Demonstrate an understanding of the natural world through scientific and mathematical knowledge garnered through hands-on coursework and seminars
 - Apply mathematics as a language which helps us understand natural phenomena and drive human endeavors through the STEM programs offered by New Pacific School
 - Communicate effectively, confidently and collaboratively in writing tasks, project-based demonstrations of learning, writing/external assessments and competitions.
 - Model behavior that is appropriate for a diverse community of scholars (evidenced via the student and parent handbook guidelines) by interacting with individuals from a multitude of backgrounds both at the school site and on field trips organized by the school
 - Develop a sense of responsibility for their community (evidenced via parent and student participation in activities and student affairs) by continual interaction with community members, institutions, and stakeholders
 - Demonstrate intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and research skills to study topics in depth (evidenced via science fair and other external competitions, and through course projects)
 - Apply technological and digital literacy to access, organize, research, and present information and knowledge (evidenced via submission requirements)
 - Establish and defend a thesis or argument (evidenced via scoring by Common Core standards-based writing rubrics)
 - Demonstrate academic competencies on core subject benchmark assessments in grades K-12 to ensure students advance in their academic readiness for the next grade

D. Overview of Subject Matter Competencies

New Pacific School expects its graduates to demonstrate a mastery of specific subject competencies. The following is a list of initial subject matter competencies that will continue to be revised and improved. The competencies are based on the state standards, including the Common Core State Standards and Next Generation Science Standards, as well as on in-depth discussions of what students should know and be able to do upon graduation and the entry-level expectations of two and four-year colleges.

Element C: METHODS TO ASSESS STUDENT PROGRESS TOWARDS MEETING OUTCOMES AND OTHER USES OF DATA

“The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(C)

The academic progress of students is tracked through a range of formal and informal assessments. The formal assessments will include the CAASPP assessment system (e.g., the Smarter Balanced Assessments, California Alternate Assessments, and the CAST), the PFT, the ELPAC, and students’ SAT and ACT test results if applicable. Students and parents receive regular progress reports using PowerSchool including tools built in such as Schoology. New Pacific School also utilizes a wide range of internal assessments to ensure students are learning including NWEA MAP, DIBELS, and embedded assessments.

Please refer to Table 35 in Element B (Measurable Pupil Outcomes) for the overview of of the assessments New Pacific School utilizes in its educational program, which are aligned to the Eight State Priorities and demonstrate multiple measures for each subject area. These elements are described in detail in section C.

New Pacific School affirms that its methods for measuring pupil outcomes for the Eight State Priorities, as described in Element B of this Charter is consistent with the way information will be reported on a School Accountability Report Card as required by Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(C).

Teachers use a variety of assessment techniques to monitor student learning informally, including benchmark assessments, observations, oral assessment, quizzes, tests, essays, journals, multimedia presentations, group projects, debates, portfolios, lab books, and performance tasks. Rubrics are used to inform students of the course, assignment, or project objectives and expectations. Students are assessed by standards in language arts, mathematics, and the sciences, and testing systems such as NWEA MAP and CAASPP Interim Assessment Benchmarks (“IAB”) to collect and analyze the data. The standards-based assessments will be instrumental in identifying the areas that students require for re-teaching. The key measurement methods are listed below (Table 36).

State Standards	CAASPP and CAST tests	Annually
Content Mastery	California standards-based assessments administered through NWEA MAP (or equivalent), DIBELS, IAB, or other state adopted materials	Ongoing throughout the year

Table 36. Key Measurements

A. Use and Reporting of Data

The results of assessments are used in five different ways. First, assessment results will provide individual students and their families with a clear idea of how well the student will be mastering the academic materials and the requirements of each course. Students requiring extra assistance and/or time will have several resources available to them. Teachers will meet regularly online or one-on-one with their students. New Pacific School will offer support to students with individual needs as determined through assessments. Students will advance to the next course level in the 'A-G' continuum unless an intervention, SST, or Response to Intervention suggests a different path, such as tutoring. New Pacific School will match EL students with tutors fluent in the student's primary language as needed. The Learning Team, including the subject area specialists along with the Director and content experts, will analyze student progress every six weeks in order to have a meaningful, effective conversation regarding the student achievement and develop action plans as needed.

The second way assessments are used will be to inform New Pacific School staff the mastery of content by students, the effectiveness of instruction, and when additional and/or different instruction will be needed. This use of assessment data will occur on multiple levels. The first level will be to assist New Pacific School in identifying the progress of individual students, providing staff the opportunity to recognize and respond appropriately to students' individual progress.

Teachers will use the CAASPP data along with other data to provide specific assistance to each student as needed. This will include counseling students on accelerated/enrichment learning opportunities. Once again, the Learning Team, along with the content area specialists, will work closely together to determine the most effective path. By triangulating multiple measures, including CAASPP, NWEA MAP (or equivalent program), informal, and formal assessments, an optimal learning plan will be implemented.

Thirdly, assessment data will be used to identify situations during the school year where groups of students are not meeting expectations in a specific course or subject area. Teachers and/or departments will use assessment data to identify these situations and determine what steps are needed to provide additional instruction or re-teach to address the shortcomings.

The fourth use of assessment data will be to evaluate and continually improve the educational program through a review of the curriculum, instructional strategies, and evaluation practices. For example, assessment results that show a broad lack of mastery in a specific topic or skill will trigger an evaluation by teachers, a department or the entire school of the instructional effectiveness and resources used by staff. At all times, the staff will reflect upon student progress and modify as needed to maximize student achievement.

Finally, as described in Elements B and C of this charter, assessments will provide an overview of the success of the New Pacific School academic program as a whole. As a college preparatory school as well as one providing school-to-career options, New Pacific School will consider all information including Grade Point Average, the percentage of students receiving acceptance to their college of choice, which colleges students will be attending, college assessments if applicable, and CTE certificates completed. The broader assessment picture will also include information from surveys of New Pacific School graduates. In-depth reviews of all aspects of the academic program including academic achievement on standardized tests will occur quarterly by the Board of Directors and Executive Director (when applicable). Applicable elements will then be shared with teachers at staff meetings. Assessments for students in grades TK-8 will focus on analysis of DOK. This reflection will include formal and informal assessments, presentations, and content level benchmarks. This essential information allows teachers to monitor progress as a school.

B. Active Monitoring Results to Drive Instruction

New Pacific School will use a variety of tools including Performance Matters to monitor standards-based instruction effectiveness and guide re-teaching for students throughout the year. A combination of online tools and embedded assessments simplify delivery, aggregation, and disaggregation of data, providing teachers and administrators with timely information that allows them to make better decisions and design more individualized learning programs.

The importance of project-based learning will allow for authentic monitoring of students with rubrics that complement the embedded and benchmark assessments. New Pacific School actively monitors student data to provide the following actions:

- Implement, calibrate, and complete project-based learning outcome rubrics with CCSS and NGSS standard completion.
- Report the results of statewide pupil assessment programs in aggregate and disaggregate forms for analysis by administrators and teachers to plan for improved pupil achievement.
- Quickly identify achievement gaps.
- Link results of assessments to instructional strategies that will be aligned to state-adopted content standards and the curriculum frameworks.
- Provide information that will be tailored to individual pupil's school, and/or state level data.
- Establish effective teacher planning with consolidation of data.
- Align instruction to address academic deficiencies and strengths identified by both standardized and criterion referenced academic assessments.

C. Annual Performance Report

The PCI Board of Directors will annually review the effectiveness of New Pacific School. The review is guided by three key questions:

- Is the academic program a success?
 - Is the school a viable organization?
 - Is the school true to the charter?

Element D: GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

“The governance structure of the charter school, including, but not limited to, the process to be followed by the charter school to ensure parental involvement.”

- Education Code 47605(c)(5)(D)

A. Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47604(a), “[a] charter school may elect to operate as, or be operated by, a nonprofit public benefit corporation.” New Pacific School will be operated by PCI, a California non-profit public benefit corporation pursuant to California law, which has its 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status recognized by the Internal Revenue Service. PCI successfully operates four independent charter schools serving students in fourteen counties.

The PCI Board is the governing body that oversees each of the charter schools that it operates, including New Pacific School upon charter approval, with Directors at each charter school overseeing day-to-day operations. The Board oversight focuses on academic success and fiduciary compliance and viability. A detailed description of the Board’s duties and the Executive Director’s duties are outlined on pages 126-127 and 129, respectively. A detailed description of the New Pacific School Principal’s duties, and the roles and responsibilities of staff and parent involvement in governance is described on pages 131-134.

New Pacific School operates autonomously from the District with the exception of the supervisory oversight as required by statute and other contracted services as negotiated between the District and PCI. Pursuant to California Education Code 47604(d), the District is not liable for the debts and obligations of New Pacific School, or for claims arising from the performance of acts, errors or omissions by New Pacific School as long as the District has complied with all oversight responsibilities required by law.

Experienced educators formed PCI in 2005. PCI operates four high-quality K-12 independent study programs serving over 3,100 students in multiple counties. PCI is eligible to serve students in the contiguous counties of Sacramento, Solano, Placer, Yolo, Sutter, Calaveras, Contra Costa, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, Alameda, Yuba, Colusa, Glenn, Butte, and Amador counties. Heritage Peak Charter School has operated continuously since the 2005-2006 school year and Rio Valley Charter School has operated continuously since the 2010-2011 school year. Valley View Charter Prep began operation in 2014-2015 and Sutter Peak Charter Academy in the 2015-2016 school year. The charter schools operated by PCI maintain a strong reputation at the local and state level as models for striving towards the goals of the state of California.

B. Board of Directors

The Pacific Charter Institute Board has a strong record of educational leadership, stability, and fiscal responsibility. PCI’s outstanding academic success, strong and stable management, successive years of unqualified audits, and healthy fiscal reserves are reflective of the leadership that will also guide the operation of New Pacific School.

D. Parental Involvement

Parental Involvement in Governance

Parents and guardians play a significant role in supporting their child and providing vital feedback to the Charter School through participation in various committees and councils, and as well as directly to Charter School administration and the Board. Parent involvement will be critical to the success of the New Pacific School. The Academic Triangle -- which includes family or guardians, teachers, and students -- remains a vital connection ensuring the teachers are walking in "lockstep" with their students and parents. The Charter School may encourage parental involvement but shall notify the parents and guardians of applicant pupils and currently enrolled pupils that parental involvement is not a requirement for, acceptance to, or continued enrollment at, the Charter School (Page 10).

Parental Input Regarding the Educational Program

As required by Education Code 47605, New Pacific School will use a range of methods to consult with and receive parental input. These methods will include collaboration, email and phone PowerSchool / systems communication, parent and student surveys, parent participation in school activities and parent contributions to school protocol development.

The Academic Triangle will be a powerful and unique feature to the school in which the three major stakeholders—the teacher, the student, and the family or guardian—work together to develop solid academic plans for the student based on various criteria. The criteria will include the student’s past academic performance, personal direction in education, home life, personal goals, affiliations and relationships, and current academic status. Based on these criteria, the Academic Triangle will best be able to determine the intensity of the educational experience and the right combination of opportunities.

All staff will have cellular phones, Office 365 communication tools, and school email access with the expectation that they return all calls and emails from students and parents within 24 hours. The fact that teachers will be readily available to students reinforces the one-on-one connection with the teacher that the Academic Triangle highlights. In addition, staff will use PowerSchool, PowerTeacher, and Schoology (and other tools) to communicate with parents with the most up to date academic information.

Parents and students will be surveyed regularly and at least annually to determine their satisfaction with New Pacific School. This reflective survey will help the school make program modifications to better serve the students and monitor the well-being of the students (Leader in Me). The faculty, administration, and the Board will review the results of the surveys to determine how New Pacific School compares to other schools in the region. In addition to the satisfaction survey, the families will be surveyed for purposes of the LCAP.

Parent and Community Advisory Committee

The principal will work with parents and community members to develop organizational strategies for the school and to advise him or her on issues and plans surrounding the school. Parents and community members meet regularly with the principal and teacher representatives to ensure an open, honest line of communication and to provide guidance on the planning and effectiveness of school priorities.

When required, the committee reports back to the Pacific Charter Institute and the Board of Directors through newsletters, memos, meeting minutes, and reports. This committee makes decisions by consensus, and its decisions must fall within the parameters of the charter document, Pacific Charter Institute, the California Education Code, and the school handbook for both parents and students. The committee will be crucial to the steering of New Pacific School, including work on the LCAP/SPSA. This core group will be instrumental in forming the School Site Council (SCC) (Title I), school priorities (LCAP Priority 3 parent engagement), the English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC Title III), and the Social Emotional Learning Advisory Sub-Committee.

All committees and advisory councils will meet the California Department of Education requirements for size and composition. These committees will be established upon opening as required due to student demographics. For Example:

The charter school will strive to achieve a student population reflective of the neighborhood(s) in which the Charter School is located and/or the low-income population served by the Charter School's authorizer. Because the Charter School's mission will be to eliminate the achievement gap, during the admission process, the Charter School puts forth best efforts to proactively contact local families who are in greatest need and may be least likely to hear about new educational opportunities. To this end, extensive outreach is conducted by Charter School leaders, PCI central staff, and volunteers. This outreach may take place door-to-door and in a wide variety of community venues including houses of worship, Head Start programs, local libraries, and local stores. Neighborhoods chosen for targeted outreach may include those that are near the Charter School, those identified as socioeconomically disadvantaged according to census tract analysis, and those near schools either eligible for differentiated assistance or with both a Free and Reduced-Price Meal-eligible student population above 50 percent and standardized test scores well below state averages. The Charter School strives to share information about our program as broadly as possible, especially to students currently attending underperforming schools.

B. Application Policies and Procedures

The Charter School shall be nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, employment practices, and all operation, shall not charge tuition, and shall not discriminate against any pupil on the basis of the characteristics listed in Section 220 (actual or perceived disability, gender, gender expression, gender identity, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code, including immigration status, or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics). No test or assessment shall be administered to students prior to acceptance and enrollment into the Charter School. The Charter School will comply with all laws establishing minimum and maximum age for public school attendance in charter schools. Admission to the Charter School, except in the case of a public random drawing (or "lottery"), shall not be determined by the place of residence of the pupil, or of the pupil's parent or guardian, within the State, unless required by Education Code Section 51747.3. In accordance with Education Code Sections 49011 and 47605(e)(2)(B)(iv), admission preferences shall not require mandatory parental volunteer hours as a criterion for admission or continued enrollment.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(A), the Charter School shall not discourage a pupil from enrolling or seeking to enroll in the charter school for any reason, including, but not limited to, academic performance of the pupil or because the pupil exhibits any of the characteristics described in Education Code Section 47605(e)(2)(B)(iii), including pupils with disabilities, academically low-achieving pupils, English learners, neglected or delinquent pupils, homeless pupils, or pupils who are economically disadvantaged, as determined by eligibility for any free or reduced-price meal program, foster youth, or pupils based on nationality, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation. Similarly, in accordance with Section 47605(e)(4)(C), the Charter School shall not encourage a pupil currently attending the Charter School to disenroll from the Charter School or transfer to another school for any reason, including, but not limited to the academic performance of the pupil or because the pupil exhibits any of the characteristics described in Education Code Section 47605(e)(2)(B)(iii), as listed above.

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(D), the Charter School shall post a notice developed by the CDE on the Charter School website, outlining the requirements of Section 47605(e)(4), and make this notice available to parents.

The application process requires submission of a student application which collects basic student information (e.g., name, date of birth, grade level entering) necessary to enter the student into a lottery, if needed, and contact information of the student and the student's parent/guardian. Prior to admission into the Charter School, no information is collected on demographic characteristics such as income, home language, ethnic background, or any special needs a student may have, as these do not factor into the application and/or lottery process.

Public Random Drawing

Applications will be accepted during two publicly advertised application periods (the initial application period and the second application period) each year for enrollment in the following school year. The Charter School shall admit all pupils who wish to attend the school subject only to capacity. Capacity will be determined by the availability of qualified, trained, credentialed teachers to serve as the teacher of record for students who wish to attend.

Following each application period, applications shall be counted to determine whether the Charter School has received more applications than availability. In the event that this happens, the Charter School will hold a public random drawing to determine admission, with the exception of existing students, who are guaranteed admission in the following school year, provided they timely notify the Charter School of the same.

Admission preferences in the case of a public random drawing shall be given to the following students in the following order:

1. Children of New Pacific School full-time employees¹⁸
2. Siblings of students admitted to or attending New Pacific School
3. Students who reside within the District who qualify for Free or Reduced Price Meals¹⁹
4. Students currently in foster care
5. Students who reside within the District

¹⁸ The total number of students granted preference listed above shall be limited to no more than a total of 10% of New Pacific School enrollment.

¹⁹ In order to be considered for this preference, families are given the option to self-identify on admission forms. The admission form shall be clear that neither this identification nor supporting documentation is required for the purposes of admission and that this identification will be used solely to grant an admissions preference and for no other reason.

6. Students who reside outside the District who qualify for Free or Reduced Price Meals
 7. Students who are currently enrolled in, or reside in the attendance area of, the public elementary school where New Pacific School's school site is physically located
 8. Students who reside outside the District

Submission of an application is not a guarantee of enrollment in the Charter School; the application is an entry into the public random drawing if the Charter School receives more applications than spaces available.

Following the initial application period each year, applications shall be counted to determine whether the number of applications exceeds the capacity. In the event that the number of students seeking admission to PCI exceeds the capacity, a lottery will be held.

Charter School's existing students who wish to continue at PCI must have confirmed their intent to return prior to the end of the second application period. Students who do so are guaranteed admission in the following school year. Following the second application period, PCI shall determine the number of available seats which shall be equivalent to Charter School's capacity minus the number of students confirmed to return and the number of students admitted during the first application period. In the event that the number of students seeking admission during the second application period exceeds the Charter School's number of available seats, a second lottery shall be held, applying the preferences listed above.

In any year in which a lottery is not required because the number of applications does not exceed the Charter School's capacity, the Charter School will admit all students who meet the admission and application requirements stated in the Charter and these Policies.

As described above, if the school has received more applications than available places during an application period, a lottery will be held. It is not necessary for students or parents/guardians to be present at this lottery to be selected. The lottery will be conducted using Pacific Charter Institute's online lottery system containing application information for all students who have submitted applications during the application period.

Admission preferences in the case of a lottery shall be provided in the order outlined in each respective PCI charter. The Charter School agrees to adhere to the requirements related to admission preferences as set forth in Education Code Section 47605(e)(2)(B)(i)-(iv).

The Board of Directors will take all necessary efforts to ensure lottery procedures are fairly executed. PCI will use an electronic lottery process integrated with each charter school's Student Information System (PowerSchool). Priorities for enrollment established for each charter school are pre-programmed into the system. All applications for each area are evaluated at one time giving preference to the priorities outlined for each charter school, and then randomized for placement in available spots. If there are more applicants than vacancies, a waitlist will be created for each area. Students qualifying for more than one preference group will be considered part of the highest preference for which they qualify.

At the conclusion of the lottery, all students who were not granted admission due to capacity shall be placed on a waitlist in an order according to their draw order in the lottery. This waitlist will allow students the option of enrollment in the case of an opening between the lottery and the start of the school year, or a new opening during the school year once underway. The waitlist will not be carried over to the next school year.

The Charter School will conduct the lottery in the spring for enrollment in fall of that year. Public random drawing rules, deadlines, dates and times will be communicated in the application form and on each Pacific Charter Institute charter school website. Public notice for the date and time of the public random drawing will also be posted once the application deadline has passed.

For each Pacific Charter Institute charter with an admission preference for siblings, admission or enrollment of an applicant's sibling gives this applicant preference in the application process. In implementing this preference, it is Pacific Charter Institute's policy that if a student is on a waitlist for the Charter School and the student's sibling is subsequently admitted to the Charter School, the student is moved to the top of the waitlist for the area the student applied to.

If a student is extended an offer for enrollment through an admission preference, the Charter School may require supporting documentation (e.g., proof of address) from the parent/guardian as part of the student's enrollment package. The Charter School shall conduct verification of such documentation prior to finalizing the student's enrollment. If the student was offered enrollment via a preference and the Charter School deems that the student does not qualify, the student will immediately forfeit admission and be placed at the end of the waitlist.

C. Enrollment Policies and Procedures

After completion of the lottery, the Charter School will make best efforts to contact the parent/guardian of all applicants to notify them of their admission and/or waitlist status(es) within two weeks of the drawing. To confirm enrollment in the Charter School, the parents/guardians must submit all required enrollment documents to the staff member responsible for enrollment at the Charter School by the stated deadline. In accordance with Education Code Section 47605(e)(4)(B), the Charter School shall not request a pupil's records or require a parent, guardian, or pupil to submit the pupil's records to the Charter School before enrollment.

In addition, the Charter School feels strongly that success for students requires a commitment from both students and parents to the mission and vision of the Charter School as set forth in the Charter. During the enrollment process, all parents or guardians shall be asked to sign a Commitment Letter indicating they understand the Charter School's philosophy and program. However, students will not be denied admission or disenrolled for failing to sign the Commitment Letter.

If the Charter School does not receive the required enrollment documents for a student by the stated deadline, after making our best attempt to contact the student, the student will be deemed to have declined his/her admission to the Charter School and will forfeit his/her spot. Notwithstanding the above, the Charter School will not penalize a homeless student or foster youth for inability to timely present some part of the required enrollment documents, consistent with our Homeless Education Policy.

Decisions on any aspect of applications, lotteries, or enrollment not addressed specifically in these Policies or in the Charter School's charter may be made by the Executive Director, consistent with all applicable law, these Policies, and the Charter School's charter. The Charter School shall comply with all applicable new requirements enacted into law.

Element I: ANNUAL FINANCIAL AUDITS

“The manner in which an annual, independent financial audit shall be conducted, which shall employ generally accepted accounting principles, and the manner in which audit exceptions and deficiencies shall be resolved to the satisfaction of the chartering authority.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(l)

An annual independent fiscal audit of the books and records of New Pacific School will be conducted as required under Education Code Sections 47605(c)(5)(l) and 47605(m). The books and records of New Pacific School will be kept in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles and as required by applicable law, the audit will employ generally accepted accounting procedures for public schools in the state of California. The audit of New Pacific School may be included in the audit of all schools operated by PCI so long as the audit provides separate revenues and expenditures for each charter school as well as the balance sheet data for each charter school. The audit will be conducted in accordance with applicable provisions within the California Code of Regulations governing audits of charter schools as published in the State Controllers K-12 Audit Guide.

The PCI Board of Directors may select an independent financial auditor through a request for proposal format and will oversee the independent audit directly. The auditor will have, at a minimum, a CPA and educational institution audit experience and shall be approved by the State Controller on its published list as an educational audit provider. To the extent required under applicable federal law, the audit scope will be expanded to include items and processes specified in the applicable Office of Management and Budget Circulars.

It is anticipated that the annual audit will be completed within four months of the close of the fiscal year. A copy of the auditor’s findings will be forwarded to the District, the County Superintendent of Schools, the State Controller, and to the CDE by the 15th of December of each year. A review of each year’s audit occurs at a Board of Directors meeting. The Executive Director, along with the audit committee (if applicable), reviews any audit exceptions or deficiencies and then reports to the Board with recommendations on how to resolve them. The Board will submit a report to the District describing how the exceptions and deficiencies are corrected by the time of the audit submission, along with supporting documentation. Additionally, the Charter School will inform the District of any outstanding exceptions or deficiencies at the time of audit submission and how they are resolved to the satisfaction of the District along with an anticipated timeline for the same. Typically, all audit exceptions or deficiencies will be addressed within six months. Any disputes regarding the resolution of audit exceptions and deficiencies will be referred to the dispute resolution process referenced in Element N of this charter or, if applicable, referred to the Education Audit Appeals Panel process in compliance with Education Code Section 41344.

The independent fiscal audit of New Pacific School will be a public record and is provided to the public upon request.

In accordance with Education Code 47604.3, New Pacific School will promptly respond to all reasonable inquiries of the chartering agency. New Pacific School will recognize the right of the chartering agency to inspect or observe any part of New Pacific School at any time.

For over the last fifteen years PCI has received positive fiscal and compliance audits from the highly qualified firms of Perry-Smith LLC, Gilbert and Associates, and James Marta & Associates. Please see Appendix 6 for a copy of the 2019-2020 financial audit for Pacific Charter Institute.

Element J: PUPIL SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION PROCEDURES

“The procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled from the charter school for disciplinary reasons or otherwise involuntarily removed from the charter school for any reason. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include an explanation of how the charter school will comply with federal and state constitutional procedural and substantive due process requirements that is consistent with all of the following:

(i) For suspensions of fewer than 10 days, provide oral or written notice of the charges against the pupil and, if the pupil denies the charges, an explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity for the pupil to present the pupil’s side of the story.

(ii) For suspensions of 10 days or more and all other expulsions for disciplinary reasons, both of the following:

(I) Provide timely, written notice of the charges against the pupil and an explanation of the pupil’s basic rights.

(II) Provide a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer within a reasonable number of days at which the pupil has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.

(iii) Contain a clear statement that no pupil shall be involuntarily removed by the charter school for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the pupil or the pupil’s parent or guardian or, if the pupil is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the pupil’s educational rights holder, and shall inform the pupil, the pupil’s parent or guardian, or the pupil’s educational rights holder of the right to initiate the procedures specified in clause (ii) before the effective date of the action. If the pupil’s parent, guardian, or educational rights holder initiates the procedures specified in clause (ii), the pupil shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the charter school issues a final decision. For purposes of this clause, “involuntarily removed” includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions specified in clauses (i) and (ii).

- Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J)

A. Suspension and Expulsion Policy and Procedures

The Suspension and Expulsion Policy and Procedures have been established in order to promote learning and protect the safety and well-being of all students at the Charter School. Consistent with this policy, it may be necessary to suspend or expel a student from regular classroom instruction. This shall serve as Charter School’s policy and procedures for student suspension, expulsion, and involuntary removal, and it may be amended from time to time without the need to seek a material revision of the charter so long as the amendments comport with legal requirements. Although many of the students of the Charter School work from home, this policy is written broadly to apply as needed to the Charter School students at school-sponsored activities or at school facilities.

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently among all students. This Policy and its Procedures will clearly describe discipline expectations, and it will be printed and distributed as part of the Student & Parent Information Packet which is sent to each student at the beginning of the school year.

Discipline will include but will not be limited to advising and counseling students, conferring with parents/guardians, detention during and after school hours, use of alternative educational environments, suspension, and expulsion.

Corporal punishment shall not be used as a disciplinary measure against any student. Corporal punishment includes the willful infliction of or willfully causing the infliction of physical pain on a student. For purposes of this Policy, corporal punishment will not include an employee's use of force that is reasonable and necessary to protect the employee, students, staff, or other persons or to prevent damage to school property.

The Charter School administration shall ensure that students and their parents/guardians are notified in writing upon enrollment of all discipline and involuntary removal policies and procedures. The notice shall state that these Policy and its Administrative Procedures are available upon request at the principal's office.

Suspended or expelled students shall be excluded from all school and school-related activities unless otherwise agreed during the period of suspension or expulsion.

A student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom Charter School has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability pursuant to the IDEA or who is qualified for services under Section 504 is subject to the same grounds for suspension and expulsion and is accorded the same due process procedures applicable to general education students except when federal and state law mandates additional or different procedures. Charter School will follow all applicable federal and state laws including but not limited to the applicable provisions of the California Education Code when imposing any form of discipline on a student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom Charter School has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability or who is otherwise qualified for such services or protections in according due process to such students.

No student shall be involuntarily removed by the Charter School for any reason unless the parent/guardian of the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five (5) schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the student or the student's parent/guardian or, if the student is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the student's educational rights holder, and shall inform the student, the student's parent/guardian, or educational rights holder of the basis for which the student is being involuntarily removed and the student's parent/guardian, or educational rights holder's right to request a hearing to challenge the involuntary removal. If a student's parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the Charter School shall utilize the same hearing procedures specified below for expulsions, before the effective date of the action to involuntarily remove the student. If the student's parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the Charter School issues a final decision. As used herein, "involuntarily removed" includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include removals for misconduct which may be grounds for suspension or expulsion as enumerated below.

Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion of Students

A student may be suspended or expelled for prohibited misconduct if the act is related to 1) a school activity, 2) school attendance occurring at the Charter School or at any other school, or 3) a Charter School sponsored event.  - p) Made terroristic threats against school officials and/or school property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases. For purposes of this policy, "terroristic threat" shall include any statement, whether written or oral, by a person who willfully threatens to commit a crime which will result in death, great bodily injury to another person, or property damage in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, even if there is no intent of actually carrying it out, which, on its face and under the circumstances in which it is made, is so unequivocal, unconditional, immediate, and specific as to convey to the person threatened, a gravity of purpose and an immediate prospect of execution of the threat, and thereby causes that person reasonably to be in sustained fear for their own safety or for their immediate family's safety, or for the protection of school property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases, or the personal property of the person threatened or their immediate family.
 - q) Committed sexual harassment, as defined in Education Code Section 212.5. For the purposes of this policy, the conduct described in Section 212.5 must be considered by a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim to be sufficiently severe or pervasive to have a negative impact upon the individual's academic performance or to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment. This provision shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive.
 - r) Caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause or participated in an act of hate violence, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 233 of the Education Code. This provision shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive.
 - s) Intentionally harassed, threatened or intimidated school personnel or volunteers and/or a student or group of students to the extent of having the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting class work, creating substantial disorder and invading the rights of either school personnel or volunteers and/or student(s) by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment. This provision shall apply to students in any of grades 4 to 12, inclusive.

- t) Engaged in an act of bullying, including, but not limited to, bullying committed by means of an electronic act, as defined above.
 - u) A student who aids or abets, as defined in Section 31 of the Penal Code, the infliction or attempted infliction of physical injury to another person may be subject to suspension, but not expulsion, except that a student who has been adjudged by a juvenile court to have committed, as an aider and abettor, a crime of physical violence in which the victim suffered great bodily injury or serious bodily injury shall be subject to discipline.
 - v) Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any knife or other dangerous object of no reasonable use to the student unless, in the case of possession of any object of this type, the student had obtained written permission to possess the item from a certificated school employee, with the Executive Director or designee's concurrence.

Non-Discretionary Expellable Offenses: Students must be recommended for expulsion when it is determined pursuant to the procedures below that the student:

- a) Possessed, sold, or otherwise furnished any firearm, explosive, or other destructive device unless, in the case of possession of any device of this type, the student had obtained written permission to possess the item from a certificated school employee, with the Executive Director or designee's concurrence.
- b) Brandished a knife at another person.
- c) Unlawfully sold a controlled substance listed in Health and Safety Code Section 11053, et seq.

If it is determined by the Administrative Panel and/or Board of Directors that a student has brought a firearm or destructive device, as defined in Section 921 of Title 18 of the United States Code, on to campus or to have possessed a firearm or destructive device on campus, the student shall be expelled for one year, pursuant to the Federal Gun Free Schools Act of 1994. In such instances, the student shall be provided due process rights of notice and a hearing as required in this policy.

New Pacific School will use the following definitions:

- The term "knife" means (A) any dirk, dagger, or other weapon with a fixed, sharpened blade fitted primarily for stabbing, (B) a weapon with a blade fitted primarily for stabbing, (C) a weapon with a blade longer than 3½ inches, (D) a folding knife with a blade that locks into place, or (E) a razor with an unguarded blade.

Suspension Procedure

Suspensions shall be initiated according to the following procedures:

1. Conference

- Suspension shall be preceded, if possible, by a conference conducted by the Director or designee with the student and the student's parent/guardian and, whenever practical, the teacher, supervisor or school employee who referred the student to the Director. The conference may be omitted if the Director or designee determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or school personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, both the parent/guardian and student shall be notified of the student's right to return to school for the purpose of a conference.
- At the conference, the student shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action and the evidence against the student and shall be given the opportunity to present their version and evidence in their defense, in accordance with Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J)(i).
- This conference shall be held within two (2) school days, unless the student waives this right or is physically unable to attend for any reason including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization.
- No penalties may be imposed on a student for failure of the student's parent or guardian to attend a conference with school officials. Reinstatement of the suspended student shall not be contingent upon attendance by the student's parent/guardian at the conference.

2. Notice to Parents/Guardians

- At the time of suspension, the Director or designee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing of the suspension and the date of return following suspension. This notice shall state the specific offense(s) committed by the student as well as the date the student may return to school following the suspension. In addition, the notice may also state the time when the student may return to school. If school officials wish to ask the parent/guardian to confer regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice may request that the parent/guardian respond to such requests without delay.

3. Suspension Time Limits/Recommendation for Placement/Expulsion

- Suspensions, when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension.
- Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the Director or designee, the student and the student's parent/guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the student should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. In such instances when the Charter School has determined a suspension period shall be extended, such extension shall be made only after a conference is held with the student or the student's parent/guardian, unless the student and the student's parent/guardian fail to attend the conference. This determination will be made by the Director or designee upon either of the following conclusions: 1) the student's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the student poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the student's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing.

4. Homework Assignments During Suspension

- In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(a), upon the request of a parent, a legal guardian or other person holding the right to make education decisions for the student, or the affected student, a teacher shall provide to a student in any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, who has been suspended from school for two (2) or more schooldays, the homework that the student would otherwise have been assigned.

- In accordance with Education Code Section 47606.2(b), if a homework assignment that is requested pursuant to Section 47606.2(a) and turned into the teacher by the student either upon the student's return to school from suspension or within the timeframe originally prescribed by the teacher, whichever is later, is not graded before the end of the academic term, that assignment shall not be included in the calculation of the student's overall grade in the class.

B. Authority to Expel

As required by Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(J)(ii), students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer to determine whether the student should be expelled. The procedures herein provide for such a hearing and the notice of said hearing, as required by law.

A student may be expelled either by the neutral and impartial Charter School Board of Directors following a hearing before it or by the Charter School Board of Directors upon the recommendation of a neutral and impartial Administrative Panel to be assigned by the Board of Directors as needed. The Administrative Panel shall consist of at least three (3) members who are certificated and neither a teacher of the student nor a member of the Charter School Board of Directors. Each entity shall be presided over by a designated neutral hearing chairperson. The Administrative Panel may recommend expulsion of any student found to have committed an expellable offense, and the Board of Directors shall make the final determination.

Expulsion Procedures

Students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. Unless postponed for good cause, the hearing shall be held within thirty (30) school days after the Director or designee determines that the student has committed an expellable offense and recommends the student for expulsion.

In the event an Administrative Panel hears the case, it will make a recommendation to the Board of Directors for a final decision whether to expel. The hearing shall be held in closed session (complying with all student confidentiality rules under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)) unless the student makes a written request for a public hearing in open session three (3) days prior to the date of the scheduled hearing.

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. Upon mailing the notice, it shall be deemed served upon the student. The notice shall include:

1. The date and place of the expulsion hearing.
 2. A statement of specific facts, charges and offenses upon which the proposed expulsion is based.
 3. A copy of the Charter School's disciplinary rules, which relate to the alleged violation.
 4. Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to provide information about the student's status at the school to any other school district or school to which the student seeks enrollment.

5. The opportunity for the student and/or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or to employ and be represented by counsel or a non-attorney advisor.
6. The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing.
7. The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing.
8. The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf including witnesses.

Special procedures for Expulsion Hearings Involving Sexual Assault or Battery Offences

New Pacific School may, upon finding a good cause, determine that the disclosure of either the identity of the witness or the testimony of that witness at the hearing, or both, would subject the witness to an unreasonable risk of psychological or physical harm. Upon this determination, the testimony of the witness may be presented at the hearing in the form of sworn declarations which shall be examined only by the Board of Directors, the administrative panel, or the hearing officer. Copies of these sworn declarations, edited to delete the name and identity of the witness, shall be made available to the student.

1. The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of their right to (a) receive five days' notice of their scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of their choosing to present in the hearing at the time the complaining witness testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying.
 2. The charter school must also provide the victim a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining witness' use prior to and during breaks in testimony.
 3. At the discretion of the entity conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which the complaining witness may leave the hearing room.
 4. The entity conducting the expulsion hearing may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness.
 5. The entity conducting the expulsion hearing may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours the complaining witness is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours.
 6. Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the entity presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the presiding person finds is disrupting the hearing. The entity conducting the hearing may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany the complaining witness to the witness stand.
 7. If one or both of the support persons is also a witness, the charter school must present evidence that the witness' presence will both be desired by the witness and will be helpful to the charter school. The person presiding over the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the presiding official shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the presiding officer from exercising their discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom they believe is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness.
 8. The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the courtroom during that testimony.

9. Especially for charges involving sexual assault or battery, if the hearing is to be conducted in the public at the request of the student being expelled, the complaining witness shall have the right to have their testimony heard in a closed session when testifying at a public meeting would threaten serious psychological harm to the complaining witness and there are not alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm. The alternative procedures may include videotaped depositions or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing by means of closed-circuit television.
10. Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness' prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the entity conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence be heard. Before such a determination regarding extraordinary circumstances can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

Presentation of Evidence

While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A recommendation by the Administrative Panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense.

Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay and sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Board of Directors, or Administrative Panel determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm.

If, due to a written request by the accused student, the hearing is held at a public meeting, and the charge is committing or attempting to commit a sexual assault or committing a sexual battery as defined in Education Code Section 48900, a complaining witness shall have the right to have their testimony heard in a session closed to the public.

Record of Hearing

A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made.

Expulsion Decision

The decision of the Administrative Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact and a written recommendation to the Board of Directors who will make a final determination regarding the expulsion. The Board of Directors shall make the final determination regarding the expulsion within ten (10) school days following the conclusion of the hearing. The decision of the Board of Directors is final.

If the expulsion hearing panel decides not to recommend expulsion, or if the Board of Directors ultimately decides not to expel, the student shall immediately be returned to their previous educational program.

The Board of Directors may also determine to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion order for a period of not more than one (1) calendar year from the date of the expulsion hearing and return the student to the student's previous educational program under a probationary status and rehabilitation plan to be determined by the Board. During the period of the suspension of the expulsion order, the student is deemed to be on probationary status. The Board of Directors may revoke the suspension of an expulsion order under this section if the student commits any of the enumerated offenses listed above or violates any of the Charter School's rules and regulations governing student conduct. If the Board revokes the suspension of an expulsion order, the student may be expelled under the terms of the original expulsion order. The Board of Directors shall apply the criteria for suspending the enforcement of the expulsion order equally to all students, including individuals with exceptional needs as defined in Education Code Section 56026. The Board of Directors shall further comply with the provisions set forth under Education Code Section 48917, except as otherwise expressly set forth herein.

Written Notice to Expel

The principal or designee, following a decision of the Board of Directors to expel, shall send written notice of the decision to expel, including the Board of Directors' adopted findings of fact, to the student and the student's parent/guardian. This notice shall also include the following:

1. Notice of the specific offense committed by the student
2. Notice of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the charter school.

The principal or designee shall send a copy of the written notice of the decision to expel to the chartering authority. This notice shall include the following:

1. The student's name
2. The specific expellable offense committed by the student

C. Disciplinary Records

New Pacific School shall maintain records of all student suspensions and expulsions at the school. Such records shall be made available to the chartering authority upon request.

D. No Right to Appeal

The student shall have no right of appeal from expulsion from the Charter School as the Board of Directors' decision to expel shall be final.

E. Expelled Students/Alternative Education

Parents/guardians of students who are expelled shall be responsible for seeking alternative education programs including, but not limited to, programs within the County or their school district of residence. The Charter School shall work cooperatively with parents/guardians as requested by parents/guardians or by the school district of residence to assist with locating alternative placements during expulsion.

F. Rehabilitation Plans

Students who are expelled from the charter school shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Board of Directors at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the student may reapply to New Pacific School for readmission.

G. Readmission or Admission of Previously Expelled Students

The decision to readmit a student after the end of the student's expulsion term or to admit a previously expelled student from another school, school district or charter school who has not been readmitted/admitted to another school or school district after the end of the student's expulsion term shall be in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors following a meeting with the Director and the student and parent/guardian or representative to determine whether the student has successfully completed the rehabilitation plan and to determine whether the student poses a threat to others or will be disruptive to the school environment. The Director shall make a recommendation to the Board of Directors following the meeting regarding the Director's or designee's determination. The Board shall then make a final decision regarding readmission or admission of the student during the closed session of a public meeting, reporting any action taken during closed session consistent with the requirements of the Brown Act. The student's readmission is also contingent upon the charter school's capacity at the time the student seeks readmission or admission to the Charter School.

H. Notice to Teachers

New Pacific School shall notify teachers of each student who has engaged in or is reasonably suspected to have engaged in any of the acts listed in Education Code Section 49079 and the corresponding enumerated offenses set forth above.

I. Special Procedures for the Consideration of Suspension and Expulsion or Involuntary Removal of Students with Disabilities

1. Notification of SELPA

The charter school shall immediately notify the SELPA and coordinate the procedures in this policy with the SELPA regarding the discipline of any student with a disability or student who the charter school or SELPA would be deemed to have knowledge that the student had a disability.

2. Services During Suspension

Students suspended for more than ten (10) school days in a school year shall continue to receive services so as to enable the student to continue to participate in the general education curriculum, although in another setting (which could constitute a change of placement and the student's IEP would reflect this change), and to progress toward meeting the goals set out in the child's IEP/504 Plan; and receive, as appropriate, a functional behavioral assessment and behavioral intervention services and modifications, that are designed to address the behavior violation so that it does not recur. These services may be provided in an interim alternative educational setting.

3. Procedural Safeguards/Manifestation Determination

Within ten (10) school days of a recommendation for expulsion or any decision to change the placement of a child with a disability because of a violation of a code of student conduct, the charter school, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team shall review all relevant information in the student's file, including the child's IEP/504 Plan, any teacher observations, and any relevant information provided by the parents to determine:

- a) If the conduct in question was caused by, or had a direct and substantial relationship to, the child's disability; or
- b) If the conduct in question was the direct result of the local educational agency's failure to implement the IEP/504 Plan.
- c) If the charter school, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team determine that either of the above is applicable for the child, the conduct shall be determined to be a manifestation of the child's disability.

If the charter school, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team make the determination that the conduct was a manifestation of the child's disability, the IEP/504 Team shall:

- a) Conduct a functional behavioral assessment and implement a behavioral intervention plan for such child, provided that the charter school had not conducted such assessment prior to such determination before the behavior that resulted in a change in placement;
- b) If a behavioral intervention plan has been developed, review the behavioral intervention plan if the child already has such a behavioral intervention plan, and modify it, as necessary, to address the behavior; and
- c) Return the child to the placement from which the child was removed, unless the parent/guardian and the charter school agree to a change of placement as part of the modification of the behavioral intervention plan.

If the charter school, the parent/guardian, and relevant members of the IEP/504 Team determine that the behavior was not a manifestation of the student's disability and that the conduct in question was not a direct result of the failure to implement the IEP/504 Plan, then the Charter School may apply the relevant disciplinary procedures to children with disabilities in the same manner and for the same duration as the procedures would be applied to students without disabilities.

1. Due Process Appeals

The parent/guardian of a child with a disability who disagrees with any decision regarding placement, or the manifestation determination, or the Charter School believes that maintaining the current placement of the child is substantially likely to result in injury to the child or to others, may request an expedited administrative hearing through the Special Education Unit of the Office of Administrative Hearings or by utilizing the dispute provisions of the 504 Policy and Procedures.

When an appeal relating to the placement of the student or the manifestation determination has been requested by either the parent/guardian or the charter school, the student shall remain in the interim alternative educational setting pending the decision of the hearing officer in accordance with state and federal law, including 20 U.S.C. Section 1415(k), until the expiration of the forty-five (45) day time period provided for in an interim alternative educational setting unless the parent/guardian and the charter school agree otherwise.

In accordance with 20 U.S.C. Section 1415(k)(3), if a parent/guardian disagrees with any decision regarding placement, or the manifestation determination, or if the Charter School believes that maintaining the current placement of the child is substantially likely to result in injury to the child or to others, the parent/guardian or Charter School may request a hearing.

In such an appeal, a hearing officer may: (1) return a child with a disability to the placement from which the child was removed; or (2) order a change in placement of a child with a disability to an appropriate interim alternative educational setting for not more than 45 school days if the hearing officer determines that maintaining the current placement of such child is substantially likely to result in injury to the child or to others.

2. Special Circumstances

New Pacific School personnel may consider any unique circumstances on a case-by-case basis when determining whether to order a change in placement for a child with a disability who violates a code of student conduct.

The principal or designee may remove a student to an interim alternative educational setting for not more than forty-five (45) school days without regard to whether the behavior is determined to be a manifestation of the student's disability in cases where a student:

- a) Carries or possesses a weapon, as defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 930, to or at school, on school premises, or to or at a school function;
- b) Knowingly possesses or uses illegal drugs, or sells or solicits the sale of a controlled substance, while at school, on school premises, or at a school function; or
- c) Has inflicted serious bodily injury, as defined by 20 U.S.C. Section 1415(k)(7)(D), upon a person while at school, on school premises, or at a school function.

3. Interim Alternative Educational Setting

The student's interim alternative educational setting shall be determined by the student's IEP/504 Team.

4. Procedures for Students Not Yet Eligible for Special Education Services

A student who has not been identified as an individual with disabilities pursuant to IDEA and who has violated the district's disciplinary procedures may assert the procedural safeguards granted under this administrative regulation only if the charter school had knowledge that the student was disabled before the behavior occurred.

The Charter School shall be deemed to have knowledge that the student will have a disability if one of the following conditions exists:

- a) The parent/guardian will express concern in writing, or orally if the parent/guardian does not know how to write or has a disability that prevents a written statement, to PCI supervisory or administrative personnel, or to one of the child's teachers, that the student will be in need of special education or related services.
 - b) The parent/guardian will request an evaluation of the child.
 - c) The child's teacher, or other school personnel, will express specific concerns about a pattern of behavior demonstrated by the child, directly to the Director of Special Education or to other charter school supervisory personnel.

If the charter school knew or should have known the student had a disability under any of the three (3) circumstances described above, the student may assert any of the protections available to IDEA-eligible children with disabilities, including the right to stay-put.

If the Charter School had no basis for knowledge of the student's disability, it shall proceed with the proposed discipline. The school shall conduct an expedited evaluation if requested by the parents; however, the student shall remain in the education placement determined by the charter school pending the results of the evaluation.

The charter school shall not be deemed to have knowledge that the student had a disability if the parent/guardian has not allowed an evaluation, refused services, or if the student has been evaluated and determined to not be eligible.

Element K: EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

“The manner by which staff members of the charter schools will be covered by the State Teachers’ Retirement System, the Public Employees’ Retirement System or federal social security.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(K)

All full-time employees at New Pacific School participate in a qualified retirement plan including, but not limited to, State Teachers’ Retirement System (“STRS”) and/or the federal social security system, based on their eligibility to participate. All eligible PCI employees, regardless of part- or full-time status, contribute to STRS. All eligible classified staff members have access to PERS and/or 401(k). Non-credentialed staff who qualify will have the opportunity to participate in a 401(k) plan and automatically participate in social security. All staff after meeting the criteria may participate in the 401(k) program. Staff will have access to other employer-sponsored retirement plans according to policies developed by the PCI Board. The Corporate Accountant is responsible for ensuring that appropriate arrangements for retirement coverage will be made for all employees.

Element L: PUBLIC SCHOOL ATTENDANCE ALTERNATIVES

“The public-school attendance alternatives for pupils residing within the school district who choose not to attend charter schools.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(L)

No student may be required to attend New Pacific School. Students who opt not to attend New Pacific School may attend the schools in the school district where they reside or pursue an inter-district transfer in accordance with existing enrollment and transfer policies of their district or county of residence. Parents and guardians of each student enrolled at New Pacific School are informed on admissions forms that the students have no right to admission in a particular school of a local education agency (or program of any local education agency) as a consequence of enrollment in New Pacific School, except to the extent that such a right will be extended by the local education agency.

Element M: EMPLOYEE RETURN RIGHTS

“The rights of an employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of returns to the school district after employment at a charter school.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(M)

No public-school employee shall be required to work at New Pacific School. Employees of YCUSD who choose to leave the employment of YCUSD to work for New Pacific School have no automatic rights of return to YCUSD after employment by PCI unless specifically granted by YCUSD through a leave of absence or other agreement. New Pacific School employees shall have any right upon leaving YCUSD to work at New Pacific School that YCUSD may specify, any rights of return to employment in a school district after employment in New Pacific School that YCUSD may specify, and any other rights upon leaving employment to work in New Pacific School that YCUSD determines to be reasonable and not in conflict with any law.

Sick or vacation leave or years of service credits at YCUSD or any other school district will be reviewed with the possibility of service credit on the salary schedule. Employment by PCI will provide no rights of employment at any other entity, including any rights in the case of closure of New Pacific School.

Element N: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

“The procedures to be followed by the charter school and the chartering authority to resolve disputes relating to provisions of the charter.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(N)

Intent

The intent of this dispute resolution process will be to (1) resolve disputes within the school pursuant to the school’s policies, (2) minimize the oversight burden on YCUSD , and (3) ensure a fair and timely resolution to disputes.

Public Comments

The staff of New Pacific School, PCI, the PCI Board, and YCUSD agree to attempt to resolve all disputes regarding this charter pursuant to the terms of this section. All parties will refrain from public commentary regarding any disputes until the matter has progressed through the dispute resolution process.

Disputes Arising from Within the School

Disputes arising from within New Pacific School, including all disputes among and between students, staff, parents, volunteers, advisory, partner organizations and the PCI Board, are resolved pursuant to policies and processes adopted by PCI.

YCUSD will not intervene in any such internal disputes without the consent of the Board of PCI and will promptly refer any complaints or reports regarding such disputes to the Board or the Executive Director for resolution pursuant to PCI’s policies. YCUSD will agree not to intervene or become involved in an internal dispute unless the dispute has given YCUSD reasonable cause to believe that a violation of this charter or related laws or agreements or issues of student health or safety have occurred, or unless the PCI Board has requested YCUSD to intervene in the dispute.

New Pacific School shall have an internal dispute resolution process to be used for all internal disputes related to the Charter School’s operations. New Pacific School shall also maintain a Uniform Complaint Policy and Procedures as required by state law. Parents, students, Board members, volunteers and staff at the Charter School shall be provided with a copy of the Charter School’s policies and internal dispute resolution process.

Disputes Between New Pacific School and YCUSD

New Pacific School recognizes that it cannot bind the District to a dispute resolution procedure to which the District does not agree. The policy below will be intended as a starting point for a discussion of dispute resolution procedures. New Pacific School will be willing to consider changes to the process outlined below as suggested by YCUSD .

New Pacific School and the District will be encouraged to attempt to resolve any disputes with the District amicably and reasonably without resorting to formal procedures.

In the event of a dispute between New Pacific School and YCUSD , New Pacific School staff, employees and Board members and the District agree to first frame the issue in written format (“dispute statement”) and to refer the issue to the District Superintendent (or designee) and Executive Director (or designee) of New Pacific School. In the event that the YCUSD Board of Education believes that the dispute relates to an issue that could lead to revocation of the charter in accordance with Education Code Section 47607, New Pacific School requests that this shall be noted in the written dispute statement, although it recognizes it cannot legally bind the District to do so. However, participation in the dispute resolution procedures outlined in this section shall not be interpreted to impede or act as a prerequisite to the District’s ability to proceed with revocation in accordance with Education Code Section 47607.

The Executive Director or designee and the YCUSD designee will informally meet and confer in a timely fashion to attempt to resolve the dispute, not later than 5 business days from receipt of the dispute statement. In the event that this informal meeting fails to resolve the dispute, both parties will identify two board members from their respective boards who will jointly meet with YCUSD designee and the Executive Director or designee and attempt to resolve the dispute within 15 business days from receipt of the dispute statement.

If this joint meeting fails to resolve the dispute, the YCUSD designee and the Executive Director or designee will meet to jointly identify a neutral third-party mediator to engage the parties in a non-binding mediation session designed to facilitate resolution of the dispute. The YCUSD designee and the Executive Director or designee will develop the format of the mediation session jointly. Mediation will be held within 60 business days of receipt of the dispute statement. The costs of the mediator will be split equally between YCUSD and New Pacific School. If mediation does not resolve the dispute, either party may pursue any other remedy available under the law. All timelines in this section may be revised upon mutual written agreement of YCUSD and New Pacific School.

Element O: CLOSURE PROTOCOL

“The procedures to be used if the charter school closes. The procedures shall ensure a final audit of the charter school to determine the disposition of all assets and liabilities of the school, including plans for disposing of any net assets and for the maintenance and transfer of pupil records.”

-Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(0)

Closure of New Pacific School will be documented by official action of the PCI Board of Directors. The action will identify the reason for closure. The official action will also identify an entity and person or persons responsible for closure-related activities.

New Pacific School will promptly notify parents and students of New Pacific School, the School District, the Sacramento County Office of Education, the school’s SELPA, the retirement systems in which the school’s employees participate (e.g., State Teachers’ Retirement System, and federal social security), and the California Department of Education of the closure as well as the effective date of the closure. This notice will also include the name(s) of and contact information for the person(s) to whom reasonable inquiries may be made regarding the closure; the pupils’ school districts of residence; and the manner in which parents (guardians) may obtain copies of pupil records, including specific information on completed courses and credits that meet graduation requirements.

New Pacific School will ensure that the notification to the parents and students of New Pacific School of the closure provides information to assist parents and students in locating suitable alternative programs. This notice will be provided promptly following the Board’s decision to close the school.

New Pacific School will also develop a list of pupils in each grade level and the courses they have completed, together with information on the pupils’ districts of residence, which they will provide to PCI. As applicable, New Pacific School will provide parents, students and the district with copies of all appropriate student records and will otherwise assist students in transferring to their next school. All transfers of student records will be made in compliance with FERPA 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. New Pacific School will ask the District to store original records of New Pacific School students. All student records of New Pacific School shall be transferred to the District upon closure. If the YCUSD will not or cannot store the records, New Pacific School shall work with the Sacramento County Office of Education to determine a suitable alternative location for storage.

All state assessment results, special education records, and personnel records will be transferred to and maintained by PCI, responsible for closure-related activities in accordance with applicable law. As soon as reasonably practicable, New Pacific School will prepare final financial records. New Pacific School will also have an independent audit completed within six months after closure. New Pacific School will pay for the final audit. The audit will be prepared by a qualified Certified Public Accountant selected by the school and will be provided to the District promptly upon its completion. The final audit will include an accounting of all financial assets, including cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value, an accounting of the liabilities, including accounts payable and any reduction in apportionments as a result of audit findings or other investigations, loans, and unpaid staff compensation, and an assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to the charter school.

New Pacific School will complete and file any annual reports required pursuant to Education Code section 47604.33.

On closure of New Pacific School, all assets of New Pacific School, including but not limited to all personal property, intellectual property and all ADA apportionments and other revenues generated by students attending the school, will remain the sole property of the New Pacific School and, upon the dissolution will remain the property of, the PCI non-profit public benefit corporation, PCI reserves the right to distribute these assets in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation to another public educational entity. Any assets acquired from the District or District property will be promptly returned upon New Pacific School closure to the District. The distribution shall include return of any grant funds and restricted categorical funds to their source in accordance with the terms of the grant or state and federal law, as appropriate, which may include submission of final expenditure reports for entitlement grants and the filing of any required Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as well as the return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any conditions established when the donation of such materials or property was accepted.

On closure, New Pacific School shall remain solely responsible for all liabilities arising from the operation of New Pacific School.

As New Pacific School is operated by a non-profit public benefit corporation, should the corporation dissolve with the closure of New Pacific School, the Board will follow the procedures set forth in the California Corporations Code for the dissolution of a non-profit public benefit corporation and file all necessary filings with the appropriate state and federal agencies.

As specified by the Budget in Appendix 6, New Pacific School will utilize the reserve fund to undertake any expenses associated with the closure procedures identified above.

MISCELLANEOUS CHARTER PROVISIONS

A. District Oversight

New Pacific School will be a wholly separate and independent entity from YCUSD .

New Pacific School will receive funding in accordance with Education Code 47630 et seq., and applicable federal law. New Pacific School will receive its funding directly from the state or through any other available mechanism. Any funds that flow through YCUSD that will be due to New Pacific School will be promptly forwarded to New Pacific School in accordance with law. PCI and New Pacific School will negotiate in a good faith to develop a memorandum of understanding that establishes the specific financial and service relationship between the two parties.

In accordance with Education Code Section 47613(a), YCUSD may charge for the actual costs of supervisory oversight of New Pacific School not to exceed one (1) percent of the revenue of New Pacific School. YCUSD may charge up to three (3) percent of the revenue of New Pacific School if New Pacific School will be able to obtain substantially rent-free facilities from YCUSD . Pursuant to Education Code Section 47613(f), "revenue of the charter school" is defined as the amount received in the current fiscal year from the local control funding formula calculated pursuant to Education Code Section 42238.02, as implemented by Education Code Section 42238.03. YCUSD will provide and/or perform the supervisory oversight tasks and duties specified by Education Code 47604.32 and/or necessitated by the charter.

These supervisory oversight services include, but will not necessarily be limited to, the following:

- Good faith efforts to develop any needed additional agreements to clarify or implement the charter
- Regular review, analysis, and dialogue regarding the annual performance report of the school
- Monitoring of compliance with the terms of this charter and related agreements
- Good faith efforts to implement the dispute resolution and related process described in the Charter
- Timely and good faith review of requests to renew or amend this charter as permitted under law.

B. Fiscal Strength and Support

PCI has significant financial strength. This strength includes strong financial reserves to ensure smooth cash flow and meet all obligations. New Pacific School demonstrates it has very strong financials. (See Appendix 7 for budget and cash flow documents.)

New Pacific School conducts its own financial systems provided under PCI. These include accounting and payroll services, including STRS reporting and state reporting to the California Department of Education. PCI uses PowerSchool, a student information system (SIS) used extensively in California and throughout the United States. PowerSchool is used for student attendance accounting (average daily attendance claims and support of attendance for audits) by the California Department of Education. This SIS also provides comprehensive student databases, state reporting, scheduling, and administrative tools.

C. Internal Financial Controls

New Pacific School, with the support of PCI, uses internal financial controls as first established by PCI for New Pacific School. Over the last fifteen years, independent auditors including Gilbert and Associates, Perry Smith, LLC, and James Marta & Company all agree in their analysis that PCI and its schools successfully segregate duties to ensure financial controls are in place. All accounts payable for the school will be processed by the PCI technician in Schoolability. The Executive Director or Designee signs off on all requisitions. The Corporate Accountant and the business team will process all of the purchase orders and then provide the ledger for the signing off to the Executive Director or designee for final approval via initial for each purchase order previously signed off in Schoolability. The Business Manager signs the ledger of the requisitions prior to check mailing. Upon the ledger report being reviewed and approved by line item, the checks are mailed to vendors. No purchases will be approved by New Pacific School without the process described above. Umpqua Bank will successfully clear checks in real time making ledger reconciliation timely and accurate. The Executive Director will maintain full accountability of all purchases made by the school.

All payroll will be managed by the Executive Director and the Corporate Accountant with support from the business team once a month upon submission by all staff with signed payroll forms. The Business Manager will compile all payroll for the organization. The business manager and human resources manager will input all payroll for the month in Schoolability, and then print a draft of the ledger to be reviewed by the Corporate Accountant. Once this review is completed, the payroll will be submitted to Umpqua Bank for final dispatch of direct deposit into the employees' accounts.

The Corporate Accountant will manage the retirement plans (STRS, 401k) monthly through the Schoolability payroll system. Payments and reports will be submitted to SCOE before the end of each month.

Accounts receivables will arrive to the Business Manager who will endorse the checks with a 'for deposit only' stamp and deposits the checks directly to Umpqua Bank. The receipts will then be forwarded to the Corporate Accountant for posting. The bank account will be reconciled on a regular basis and the reconciliation will be signed off by the Business Manager.

All of the above procedures are analyzed annually by James Marta & Company or other state approved auditor during the independent audit procedures.

D. Budgets and Cash Flow

"The petitioner or petitioners also shall be required to provide financial statements that include a proposed first year operational budget, including startup costs, and cash flow and financial projections for the first three years of operation."

- Education Code Section 47605(h)

See Appendix 6 for New Pacific School's three-year budget and cash flow, including financial projections and startup costs. These documents are based upon the Local Control Funding Formula and the best estimates of revenues and costs available to the charter school at this time.

E. Financial Reporting

New Pacific School will provide reports to YCUSD and the County as follows, and will provide additional fiscal reports as requested by YCUSD :

- By July 1, a preliminary budget for the current fiscal year.
- By July 1, an annual update (LCAP) required pursuant to Education Code Section 47606.5.
- By December 15, an interim financial report for the current fiscal year reflecting changes through October 31. Additionally, on December 15, a copy of New Pacific School's annual, independent financial audit report for the preceding fiscal year will be delivered to the District, State Controller, State Department of Education, and County Superintendent of Schools.
- By March 15, a second interim financial report for the current fiscal year reflecting changes through January 31.
- By September 15, a final un-audited report for the full prior year. The report submitted to the District will include an annual statement of all New Pacific School's receipts and expenditures for the preceding fiscal year.

PCI and New Pacific School will maintain appropriate records. In accordance with the timelines required by Education Code 47604.33, a copy of the proposed fiscal year budget for New Pacific School, financial reports, and unaudited actuals will be forwarded to YCUSD . New Pacific School operates in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). A business operations process will be utilized for New Pacific School's day-to-day business functions. The charter school promptly responds to all reasonable inquiries, including inquiries regarding financial records.

Reporting Requirements

The following reports will be submitted to YCUSD :

- California Basic Educational Data System
- Actual Daily Attendance Reports, Budget (J210 or other approved document) both preliminary and final
- LCAP
- Copies of annual, independent financial audits employing generally accepted accounting principles

F. Insurance

PCI has secured and maintains, on behalf of New Pacific School, commercially reasonable general liability, worker's compensation, and other necessary insurance coverage as set forth below to protect New Pacific School from claims that may arise from its operations:

- Workers' compensation insurance in accordance with the provisions of the California Labor Code, adequate to protect New Pacific School from claims under Workers' Compensation Acts, which may arise from its operations;
 - General Liability, Comprehensive Bodily Injury, and Property Damage Liability for combined single limit coverage of not less than $2,000,000 for each occurrence. The policy will be endorsed to name YCUSD as an additional insured.

(These amounts may be altered upon recommendations of the insurer as required by agreement between the YCUSD and PCI.)

PCI maintains adequate property and liability insurance for New Pacific School. Types and amounts are agreed upon in an operational agreement between YCUSD and PCI. Proof of insurance will be provided to YCUSD upon request.

G. Administrative Services

"The manner in which administrative services of the charter school are to be provided."

-Education Code Section 47605(h)

PCI conducts all administrative and business services on behalf of New Pacific School on a percentage basis of all services and support rendered to the school. This support includes back office, academic, special education, and executive management from PCI at its office located at 1401 El Camino Ave., Ste. 510, Sacramento, CA 95815. Any additional contracts are vetted for conflict of interest as adopted by the PCI Board of Directors. New Pacific School and PCI provide their own academic support and special education services except for those agreed upon with the District as listed above.

PCI will provide all administrative duties, further ensuring high quality services in a cost-effective manner.

H. Facilities

"The facilities to be used by the charter school. The description of the facilities to be used by the charter school shall specify where the charter school intends to locate."

-Education Code Section 47605(h)

New Pacific School intends to locate within the Yuba City Unified School District and Yuba City. It is not fiduciarily responsible nor plausible for a charter school to sign a lease without having an approved charter petition. As such, establishment charter petitions, such as New Pacific School's charter, may not necessarily identify a specific facility at the time of charter submission.

New Pacific School is working with a commercial real estate broker with extensive experience with educational facilities and charter schools to identify and negotiate an appropriate site within the targeted community.

The facility will contain classrooms designed for project-based learning and room for inquiry and collaboration. The facility will include classrooms, student bathrooms, staff bathrooms, office space, open area for gatherings, and a kitchen prepared to distribute meals to students.

The Charter School will notify the District of the site and will not open the Charter School without meeting all applicable laws and regulations, including any applicable local zoning and building codes, as applicable for charter schools.

The Charter School may apply for Proposition 39 facilities with the School District.

I. Potential Civil Liability Effects

*“Potential civil liability effects, if any, upon the charter school and upon the school district.”
-Education Code Section 47605(h)*

Pacific Charter Institute, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, operates New Pacific School. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and California Revenue and Taxation Code 23701(d).

Pursuant to Education Code 47604(d), an entity that grants a charter to a charter school operated by or as a non-profit public benefit corporation will not be liable for the debts or obligations of the charter school or for claims arising from the performance of acts, errors, or omissions by the charter school if the authority has complied with the oversight responsibilities required by law. New Pacific School will work diligently to assist the School District in meeting any and all oversight obligations under the law, including meetings as requested, statutory fiscal reporting, or other requested protocols to ensure the District will not be liable for the operation of New Pacific School.

PCI Bylaws provide for indemnification of the PCI Board, officers, agents, and employees, and PCI purchases and maintains general liability insurance, directors and officers insurance, and workers compensation insurance. The District will be named an additional insured on the general liability insurance of New Pacific School.

J. Transportation

New Pacific School will be accessible by pedestrians, bicycle, car, and public transportation. Yuba City has a number of bus lines and light rail stations that service the city. (See Maps 2-3 for current transit lines and bike routes). The city also has a master plan for pedestrians and bicyclists. According to the City of Yuba City, “Developing safe, convenient bicycle access is a priority for Yuba City. The League of American Bicyclists has recognized the City of Yuba City with a Bronze Level Bicycle Friendly Community, and the City continues to develop an even safer, more comfortable bikeway network with support facilities, and foster a thriving bicycling culture through programs and events.” New Pacific School is committed to working with community partners to ensure that students have safe routes to and from school. This might include promoting the Sacramento Student Fare-Free Transit Pass program, engaging parents in safe pick-up and drop-off procedures, or working with the city to support bike-friendly routes to school. New Pacific School will be a school of choice and therefore it will be the responsibility of the parents/guardians to provide transportation of students to and from the school, except as required by law for students with disabilities in accordance with a student’s IEP.

K. District Visitation and Inspection

New Pacific School will comply with the District visitation and authorization process which includes a formal visit at least annually by YCUSD . During this formal visit and inspection, New Pacific School provides information needed to validate the Charter School's performance and compliance as a public charter school. New Pacific School agrees to and submits to the right of the School District to make random visits and inspections or observations in order to carry out its statutorily required oversight in accordance with the Education Code Section 47607.

L. Response to Inquiries

Pursuant to Education Code Section 47604.3, New Pacific School promptly responds to all reasonable inquiries including, but not limited to inquiries regarding its financial records from the School District, County Board of Education, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Attachments (Appendices)

The documents and materials attached to this charter (e.g., appendices) are for informational purposes only and are not part of the charter.

CONCLUSION

By approving this establishment charter petition, YCUSD will be fulfilling the intent of the Charter Schools Act of 1992 to improve pupil learning; increase learning opportunities for all pupils with special emphasis on expanded learning opportunities for all pupils who are identified as academically low achieving; create new professional opportunities for teachers; and provide parents and pupils with expanded choices in education and following the directive of law to encourage the creation of charter schools. New Pacific School is eager to work independently, yet cooperatively with the District to set the highest standard for what a charter school should and can be. To this end, New Pacific School pledges to work cooperatively with the District to answer any concerns over this document and to present the District with the strongest possible charter petition. We request a charter for the period of five (5) years commencing July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2028.

Assessment

Lesson 1: Student describe preconceptions of energy, forces and motion while recording their observation during a series of short investigations. Students are expected to construct and analyze graphs, ask testable questions, model energy changes taking place in a system, and determine criteria for a design project to test and improve. NGSS Various PE MS-PS2, MS-PS3, MS-ETS, DCI PS2, PS3, ETS1, Lesson 2: Force, Velocity, and Acceleration - Students begin to ask questions about motion and design and run investigations to find answers. NGSS PE MS-PS2-2, MS-PS3-5 Lesson 3: Magnetic Forces- Student do a series of investigation to explore magnetic fields and apply concepts about the strength of magnetic forces to new situations. NGSS PE MS-PS2-3, MS-PS2-5, DCI PS2B	Lesson 4: Newtons First and Second Laws - Students use Newtons 1st and 2nd Law to predict, Apply Newtons laws to plan investigations, and construct explanations using evidence gathered from investigations. NGSS PE MS-PS2-2 DCI PS2A, PS3C Lesson 5: Kinetic and Potential Energy- Students differentiate between potential and kinetic energy through a series of investigations. Students construct graphs to describe the relationship. Students use experimental evidence to support claims and apply what they learned to solve a real-world problem. NGSS PE MS-PS3-1, MS-PS3-2, MS-PS3-2, MS-PS3-5 DCI PS3A, PS3B, PS3C Lesson 6: Newtons Third Law - Students observe force pairs and apply force pairs to move an object. This is done through the construction of a battery powered fan car. NGSS PE MS-PS2-2, MS-PS2-2, MSETS1-3 DCI PS2A, ETS1.A, ETS1.B	Lesson 7: Collisions - Students plan and perform investigations to explore collisions of cars with the same mass, different masses. Students develop an argument based on evidence regarding proposed legislation to restrict the speed limit on some vehicles. NGSS PE MS-PS2-1, MS-PS2-2, MS-PS3-5 DCI PS2A, PS3C Lesson 8: Transforming Energy - Students build a basic roller coaster and construct investigations using it. Students define and investigate scientific principles inherent in the design. Students work on optimizing their design solution. NGSS PE MS-PS3-5, MS-ETS1-1 thru4, DCI PS3.A,B,C ETS1A,B,C Lesson 9: Assessment Energy Forces and Motion- Student Complete Performance Assessment Task using knowledge of energy, forces and motion, create a plan for transporting produce without it fall off the vehicle. Students are required to create models to explain and support their design to their peers.	Lesson 1: Pre-Assessment Weather and Climate Systems - Students examine what they know and discuss naturally occurring events. Student create a concept map, and use models. Lesson 2: Warming Earth's Surface - Students investigate rates of warming and cooling of water and soil. Student collect, analyze and relate their findings to the heating and cooling of Earth's surfaces. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, if there is such an officer, or a majority of the Board of Directors. If a Chairman of the Board has not been elected then the Executive Director is authorized to call a special meeting in place of the Chairman of the Board. The party calling a special meeting shall determine the place, date, and time thereof.

Section 17. NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETINGS. In accordance with the Brown Act, special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held only after twenty-four (24) hours notice is given to the public through the posting of an agenda. Directors shall also receive at least twenty-four (24) hours notice of the special meeting, in the manner:

- a. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director at the director's address as it is shown on the records of the Corporation, or as may have been given to the Corporation by the director for purposes of notice, or, if an address is not shown on the Corporation's records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the Board of Directors are regularly held.
- b. Notice by mail shall be deemed received at the time a properly addressed written notice is deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed received at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or is actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means to the recipient. Oral notice shall be deemed received at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient whom the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the receiver.
- c. The notice of special meeting shall state the time of the meeting, and the place if the place is other than the principal office of the Corporation, and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting. No business, other than the business the general nature of which was set forth in the notice of the meeting, may be transacted at a special meeting.

Section 18. QUORUM. A majority of the directors then in office shall constitute a quorum. All acts or decisions of the Board of Directors will be by majority vote of the directors in attendance, based upon the presence of a quorum. Should there be less than a majority of the directors present at any meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned. The directors present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting due to a withdrawal of directors from the meeting, provided that any action thereafter taken must be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting or such greater percentage as may be required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. Directors may not vote by proxy. The vote or abstention of each board member present for each action taken shall be publicly reported.

Section 19. TELECONFERENCE MEETINGS. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in teleconference meetings so long as all of the following requirements in the Brown Act are complied with:

- a. At a minimum, a quorum of the members of the Board of Directors shall participate in the teleconference meeting from locations within the boundaries of the school districts in which the Pacific Charter Institute operates;
- b. All votes taken during a teleconference meeting shall be by roll call;
- c. If the Board of Directors elects to use teleconferencing, it shall post agendas at all teleconference locations with each teleconference location being identified in the notice and agenda of the meeting;
- d. All locations where a member of the Board of Directors participates in a meeting via teleconference must be fully accessible to members of the public and shall be listed on the agenda;¹
- e. Members of the public must be able to hear what is said during the meeting and shall be provided with an opportunity to address the Board of Directors directly at each teleconference location; and
- f. The agenda shall indicate that members of the public attending a meeting conducted via teleconference need not give their name when entering the conference call.²

Section 20. ADJOURNMENT. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any Board of Directors meeting to another time or place. Notice of such adjournment to another time or place shall be given, prior to the time schedule for the continuation of the meeting, to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment, and to the public in the manner prescribed by any applicable public open meeting law.

Section 21. COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT. Directors may not receive compensation for their services as directors or officers, only such reimbursement of expenses as the Board of Directors may establish by resolution to be just and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time that the resolution is adopted.

Section 22. CREATION AND POWERS OF COMMITTEES. The Board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, may create one or more committees of the Board, each consisting of two or more directors and no one who is not a director, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Appointments to committees of the Board of Directors shall be by majority vote of the directors then in office. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting. Any such committee shall have all the authority of the Board, to the extent provided in the Board of Directors' resolution, except that no committee may:

² The Brown Act prohibits requiring members of the public to provide their names as a condition of attendance at the meeting.

- b. Fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board;
- c. Fix compensation of the directors for serving on the Board of Directors or on any committee;
- d. Amend or repeal bylaws or adopt new bylaws;
- e. Amend or repeal any resolution of the Board of Directors that by its express terms is not so amendable or subject to repeal;
- f. Create any other committees of the Board of Directors or appoint the members of committees of the Board;
- g. Expend corporate funds to support a nominee for director if more people have been nominated for director than can be elected; or
- h. Approve any contract or transaction to which the Corporation is a party and in which one or more of its directors has a material financial interest.

The Board may also create one or more advisory committees composed of directors and non-directors. It is the intent of the Board to encourage the participation and involvement of faculty, staff, parents, students and administrators through attending and participating in open committee meetings. The Board may establish, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, advisory committees to serve at the pleasure of the Board.

Section 23. MEETINGS AND ACTION OF COMMITTEES. Meetings and actions of committees of the Board of Directors shall be governed by, held, and taken under the provisions of these bylaws concerning meetings, other Board of Directors' actions, and the Brown Act, if applicable, except that the time for general meetings of such committees and the calling of special meetings of such committees may be set either by Board of Directors' resolution or, if none, by resolution of the committee. Minutes of each meeting shall be kept and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the governance of any committee as long as the rules are consistent with these bylaws. If the Board of Directors has not adopted rules, the committee may do so.

Section 24. NON-LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS. No director shall be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Corporation.

Section 25. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS GOVERNING STUDENT RECORDS. The Charter School and the Board of Directors shall comply with all applicable provisions of the Family Education Rights Privacy Act (“FERPA”) as set forth in Title 20 of the United States Code Section 1232g and attendant regulations as they may be amended from time to time.

Section 26. EXPECTED PARTICIPATION BY DIRECTORS. Directors shall attend three (3) of five (5) regularly scheduled board meetings. If these participation levels are not met the director may be subject to removal by a board vote.

The Corporation shall not lend any money or property to or guarantee the obligation of any director or officer without the approval of the California Attorney General; provided, however, that the Corporation may advance money to a director or officer of the Corporation for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of his or her duties if that director or officer would be entitled to reimbursement for such expenses of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XII
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. INDEMNIFICATION. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and other persons described in Corporations Code Section 5238(a), including persons formerly occupying any such positions, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding," as that term is used in that section, and including an action by or in the right of the Corporation by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. Every director shall have the right at any reasonable time to inspect the Corporation's books, records, documents of every kind, physical properties, and the records of each subsidiary as permitted by California and federal law. The inspection may be made in person or by the director's agent or attorney. The right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents as permitted by California and federal law. This right to inspect may be circumscribed in instances where the right to inspect conflicts with California or federal law (e.g., restrictions on the release of educational records under FERPA) pertaining to access to books, records, and documents.

For this purpose, an "interested person" is either:

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Pacific Charter Institute
Sacramento, California

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Pacific Charter Institute (a California Non-Profit Public Benefit Corporation), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2021, the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended and the related notes to the financial statements.

Managements Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Pacific Charter Institute as of June 30, 2021, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying supplementary information as listed in the table of contents, including the schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by the July 2021 Edition of the Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements of Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance), Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations, are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements.

The other accompanying supplementary information also listed in the table of contents, includes schedules as required by the 2020-21 Guide for Annual Audits of K-12 Local Education Agencies and State Compliance Reporting, published by the Education Audit Appeals Panel, are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relate directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated December 6, 2021 on our consideration of Pacific Charter Institute's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters.

The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Pacific Charter Institute's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. REPORTING ENTITY

Pacific Charter Institute (the "Charter School") is organized as a 501(c)(3) corporation. Pacific Charter Institute manages four individual charter schools: Heritage Peak Charter School, Rio Valley Charter School, Valley View Charter Prep and Sutter Peak Charter Academy. In 2005, 2010, 2014, and 2015, the State Board of Education granted charter school status to Heritage Peak Charter School, Rio Valley Charter School, Valley View Charter Prep, and Sutter Peak Charter Academy respectively, through the authority established in Education Code Section 47605 (Senate Bill 1448, Statutes of 1992, Chapter 781). The State Board of Education can revoke the Charter School's charter if Twin Rivers Unified School District, Lodi Unified School District, New Jerusalem Elementary School District or Nuestro School District, the Charter School's sponsoring Districts, determines that the Charter School did any of the following:

- Committed a material violation of any of the conditions, standards or procedures set forth in the charter petition.
- Failed to meet or pursue any of the pupil outcomes identified in the charter petition.
- Failed to meet generally accepted accounting standards of fiscal management.
- Violated any provision of law.

The Board of Directors is the level of government which has governance responsibilities over all activities related to public elementary school education in the Charter School. The Board is not included in any governmental "reporting entity" as defined by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, since Board members have decision-making authority, the power to designate management, the responsibility to significantly influence operations and primary accountability for fiscal matters.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

B. BASIS OF ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL STATEMENT PRESENTATION

The financial statements of the Charter School have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("US GAAP"), which require the Organization to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to restrictions by an outside entity and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Charter School. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Charter School's management and the board of directors.

Net assets with restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by outside funders. Some restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Charter or by the passage of time. Other restrictions are perpetual in nature, where by the outside party has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Restricted income is reported as increases in net assets with restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with restrictions to net assets without restrictions in the statements of activities.

The Charter School had $1,183,015 net assets with restrictions or endowments at June 30, 2021.

C. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Contributions and grants are recognized in full when received or unconditionally promised. All contributions are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by donors for future periods or specific purposes. Donor-restricted amounts are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets. Temporarily restricted net assets become unrestricted, and are reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions, when time restrictions expire or the contributions are used for the restricted purpose. Conditional promises to give, which depend on the occurrence of specified future and uncertain events, are not recorded until the conditions are met. Government grants are recognized as revenue in accordance with the terms of the applicable grant agreement, which is generally upon the incurrence of expenditures related to the required services.

Donated materials, equipment, and professional services are recorded as in-kind contributions and recognized at the estimated fair value as of the date of donation or service. Contributed services are recorded when they create or enhance non-financial assets or require a specialized skill that the Charter School would otherwise need to purchase.

D. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Charter School considers investments with maturity at purchase of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

E. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Management provides for uncollectable amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. It is estimated that all of the accounts receivable will be collected; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been established.

F. PREPAID EXPENSES

Certain expenses are treated as prepaid at June 30, 2021. This is to reflect a proper matching of expenses for the year-end financial statements

G. UNEARNED REVENUE

Revenues from federal, state, and local special projects and programs are recognized when qualified expenditures have been incurred. Funds received but not earned are recorded as unearned revenue until earned. There was unearned revenue of $67,201 at June 30, 2021.

H. CAPITAL ASSETS

Capital assets purchased or acquired, with an original cost of $5,000 or more, are recorded at historical cost or estimated historical cost. Contributed assets are reported at fair market value as of the date received. Additions, improvements and other capital outlay that significantly extend the useful life of an asset are capitalized. Other costs incurred for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Capital assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over 4 - 30 years depending on asset types.

I. COMPENSATED ABSENCES

At June 30, 2021, the Charter School had no liability for accumulated unpaid employee vacation benefits.

J. ACCUMULATED SICK LEAVE

At June 30, 2021, the Charter School had no liability for accumulated sick leave benefits. The Charter School's policy is to record sick leave as an operating expenditure in the period taken, since benefits do not vest.

K. INCOME TAXES

The organization is organized pursuant to General Nonprofit Law of the State of California and is exempt from State and Federal income taxes under I.R.C. Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

L. FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES

Expenses have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities and of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated between the functional areas based on management estimates of employees' time incurred and on resource usage.

M. ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenditures during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

N. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Charter School's management has reviewed its financial statements and evaluated subsequent events for the period of time from its year ended June 30, 2021 through December 6, 2021, the date the financial statements were issued. Management is not aware of any subsequent events, other than those described above, that would require recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.

Cash and cash equivalents at June 30, 2021 consisted of cash in the bank totaling $4,019,853.

Cash balances held in banks are insured by the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. Amounts held in banks in excess of FDIC as of June 30, 2021 were $4,566,888.

Interest Rate Risk. Pacific Charter Institute does not have a formal investment policy that limits cash and investment maturities as a means of managing its exposure to fair value losses arising from increasing interest rates. At June 30, 2021, the Charter School had no significant interest rate risk related to cash held.

Credit Risk. Pacific Charter Institute does not have a formal investment policy that limits its investment choices other than the limitations of state law.

Concentration of Credit Risk. The Charter School does not place limits on the amount it may invest in any one issuer. At June 30, 2021, the Charter School held all of its cash in Wells Fargo Bank.

Report on Compliance for Each State Program

We have audited the compliance of Pacific Charter Institute with the types of compliance requirements described in the State of California's 2020-21 Guide for Annual Audits of K-12 Local Education Agencies and State Compliance Reporting (the "Audit Guide") to the state laws and regulations listed below for the year ended June 30, 2021.

Management's Responsibility

Compliance with the applicable compliance requirements is the responsibility of Pacific Charter Institute's management.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on Pacific Charter Institute's compliance with the applicable compliance requirements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the State of California's 2020-21 Guide for Annual Audits of K-12 Local Education Agencies and State Compliance Reporting. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the state laws and regulations listed below occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about Pacific Charter Institute's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of the Charter School's compliance with those requirements.

REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Board of Directors
Pacific Charter Institute
Sacramento, California

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements Pacific Charter Institute, which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2021 and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated December 6, 2021.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered Pacific Charter Institute's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Pacific Charter Institute's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Pacific Charter Institute's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

James Marta & Company LLP
Certified Public Accountants

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Pacific Charter Institute's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of Pacific Charter Institute's major federal programs based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of the July 2021 Edition of the Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements of Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance), Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about Pacific Charter Institute's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of Pacific Charter Institute's compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, Pacific Charter Institute complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2021.

Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of Pacific Charter Institute is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered Pacific Charter Institute's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Pacific Charter Institute's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

A. Mission Statement and School Description

MISSION: Pacific Charter Institute (“PCI”) empowers students to take charge of their education by connecting their individual needs and interests to a rigorous learning plan, thus creating self-motivated responsible citizens, critical problem-solvers, and lifelong learners.

VISION: Developing self-motivated, educated individuals in the Northern California region who will spread the wealth of knowledge worldwide in a meaningful way.

Pacific Charter Institute serves homeschool and independent study students using a hybrid model. Our independent study program offers a range of models as a choice for students desiring a change from traditional campus attendance. We offer community-based (off-site) independent study and six resource center (on-site) independent study options. Our homeschooling program provides families the freedom to explore and individualize curriculum based on different learning styles.

B. Child Abuse Reporting Procedures

PCI recognizes that child abuse has severe consequences and that PCI has a responsibility to protect students by facilitating the prompt reporting of known and suspected incidents of child abuse.

California Penal Code section 11166 requires any child care custodian who has knowledge of, or observes, a child in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse to report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency immediately, or as soon as practically possible, by telephone and to prepare and send a written report thereof within thirty-six (36) hours of receiving the information concerning the incident.

PCI will provide annual training on the mandated reporting requirements, using the online training module provided by the State Department of Social Services, to employees who are mandated reporters. Mandated reporter training will also be provided to employees hired during the course of the school year. This training will include information that failure to report an incident of known or reasonably suspected child abuse or neglect, as required by Penal Code section 11166, is a misdemeanor punishable by up to six (6) months confinement in a county jail, or by a fine of one-thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

All employees required to receive mandated reporter training must provide proof of completing the training within the first six (6) weeks of each school year or within the first six (6) weeks of that employee's employment.
